Acting on the authority of Shanghai Special District Court Search Warrant, No.8 dated 1/9/40, members of the Special Branch headed by D.S.I. Logan in conjunction with a squad of 14 C.P.C.s and F.S. MacFarlane from the Reserve Unit under Inapt. Campbell, at 8.15 p.m. September 1, raided premises No.4, Lane 234, Mapai Road, where public gambling was reported to be in progress.

At the time of the Police visit, it was learned that public gambling, which commenced there in the morning and ended at 4 p.m. that date, had just been started at that address on September 1, as the premises in question were still under the process of being decorated. Seven employees of the den, known as the Hoong Shing Company (鴻興), were subsequently learned to have left the address about half an hour prior to the Police arrival and informed the three painters who were then at work that they would return shortly afterwards. The painters upon being interrogated by Police were unable to supply any useful information regarding the conductors and other particulars of the den.

A thorough search of the premises was made and the following gambling paraphernalia was seized and brought to Pootoo Road Station :-

- 6 brass boxes for chips.
- 2 porcelain pots for shaking dices.
- 1 large black wood pot with 3 dices.

House 864 Yu Yuen Road was the former site of the Broadway Club, a gambling den which opened on December 23, 1939, with the approval of the Japanese Amusement Supervision Office (now defunct). It was closed on June 16, by order of the Japanese Military Police but reopened on June 28 under the title "New Asia Club". This den paid a "guarantee Fund" of $100,000.00 and a further daily sum of $3,333.00 to the Japanese Military Police for permission to carry on their business. On July 31, 1940, the "New Asia Club" closed and amalgamated with the "Loh Kuo Hotel", a joint establishment of six leading gambling dens which is located at 346 Avenue Haig.

Following the evacuation of the den, the premises at 864 Yu Yuen Road were almost immediately occupied as a temporary boarding house by some ten members (usually armed with Mauser pistols) under the command of one Van Ming (范敏) alias Van Li Long (范利郎), a battalion commander of the "Peace and National Construction Army", who is in charge of the liaison office for the Army in question at 65 West End Gardens, Yu Yuen Road. Van serves concurrently as a section chief of the Special Service Group attached to the Shanghai Office of the Ministry of Police, 76 Jessfield Road. Those ten

On August 10, a fight occurred between members of the Special Service Group attached to the Shanghai Office of the Ministry of Police and employees of a small gambling den named the "Hwa Song Club" (華商總會), 10 Zung Teh Fang, Jessfield Road, O.O.L. The trouble arose over an attempt by the Special Service Group to extort money from the den.

The Hwa Song Club came into existence on August 10, with Sung Sze Zung (孫樹成) as conductor and he was assisted by three Formosans who acted as guards. Prior to the opening of the den, attempts were made by Tsang Kuo Tseng (張國震), in charge of a section of the Special Service Group at 22 Sing Loh Tseng, Singapore Road, O.O.L., to obtain a monthly fee of $300.00 from the den but the demand was ignored. On the morning of August 10, a member of the section visited the den on instruction from Tsang Kuo Tseng and after losing at the gaming tables demanded the re-payment of $50.00 which was rejected. The waiter whom he asked for the money was carrying a kettle of hot water and collided with this person who then attempted to assault the waiter. The three Formosan guards immediately appeared while a number of the Special Service Group also appeared at the same time

Concerning the newly established Loh Koh Club, 346 Avenue Haig, F.S. Vaughan-Neale confidentially notified D.I. 'About July 25, 1940 a party of armed men entered 346 Avenue Haig and abducted Mr. Yang. He was taken to a house in the Western Area where he was ordered to remove from and surrender his home to a gambling syndicate who would pay to him the sum of $4,000.00 a month as compensation and rent. Mr. Yang, who was liberated about two hours after being abducted, and had no option but to accept the demands, removed from his home on the following day.'

On the morning of August 2, 1940 information from an outside source was received to the effect that on the night of July 31, 1940 about 30 to 40 armed men walked into 864 Yu Yuen Road, the Broadway Gambling Den, as it was about to close as a gambling establishment, and took possession of the premises.

These armed men were said to be members of the China Peace National Salvation Army, with head office in Shanghai established at 65 West End Gardens.

This information was corroborated on the morning of August 10, 1940 when representatives of the Shanghai Office of Ministry of Police, 76 Jessfield Road, were being interviewed in connection with a missing child.

Also representative interviewed, in the course of general conversation stated; that on the night of the 7/8 August 1940 members of the Ministry of Police were despatched to 864 Yu Yuen Road and these members dispossessed the occupants, who left when informed that instructions to dispossess them of the premises had been issued by Lee Su Chuen, Vice-Minister of Ministry of Police.

The premises which are now being guarded by four members of the Shanghai City Government Police are being returned to their former owners, the gambling den promoters.

The informant added that in view of the numerous complaints received concerning the criminal activities of the China Peace National Salvation Army, there was every likelihood of Lee Sz Chuen upon his return to Shanghai, issuing an order to close up the office of this organization at 65 West End Gardens.

The Badlands: New Gambling Den to Open

To the Editor of the
"NORTH-CHINA DAILY NEWS"

Sir.—It is quite some time now since we were promised that all gambling establishments on the outside roads were to be closed for good and yet nothing had been done up to the moment.

We know that practically all criminal acts emanate from these houses of chance (excepting, of course, political murders) and yet a new one situate at Yu Yuen Road, Lane 1032 House No. 25 is about to throw open its doors.

There is something doing at the moment amongst the foreign consuls of this city and all seem anxious to rid the settlement of further crime, and hope this letter will catch the eye of one who has the authority to stop issuing that necessary permit thus preventing the said gambling joint from opening up for business.

Made by D.S.I. Loh Wei Kong Forwarded by D. I. Crawford.

A change in the situation in the leading gambling dens which were permitted to reopen after June 24, 1940 is expected to take place by the end of July, 1940, according to information received. The conductors of the six leading dens concerned are of the opinion that the Japanese Military Police will either instruct them to amalgamate and so make only one establishment to be operated in the form of a company, or close altogether at the end of the current month. Endeavours are being made by the conductors through Mr. YAMAKI (山本四郎), Japanese advisor to the East Asia Charity Association, to secure permission from the Japanese Military Police authorities to be allowed to carry on their activities without any change, but nothing definite has yet been learned. The China Club, 29 Tifeng Road, will not be affected by the scheme.

The following are the leading gambling dens now operating in the Western District, O.O.L. :

Sir,

With reference to remarks of Mr. H.D.V. Robertson, S. B. Division, on afternoon translation dated July 16, relevant to an article appearing in the Chinese Press regarding the closure of gambling dens in the Western area, I beg to report that according to information from fairly reliable sources, there is an indication that all the gambling dens in the Western area, with the exception of the China Club, 29 Tifeng Road, will cease functioning at 12 midnight on the July 31, 1940.

However, prevalent among the gambling promoters, to whom the order was given to close, is a rumour that they will be permitted to re-open early in August 1940 and continue operations until midnight on the day previous to the establishment of the Special Police Force in the outside roads area.

Made by... D.S.I. Loh Wei Kong Forwarded by... D. I. Crawford.

There is no truth in the article appearing in the July 16th issue of the Chinese-American Daily News wherein they state that an order has been issued by the Shanghai City Government for the closure of all gambling dens in the Western District, O.O.L. within three days.

The report appears to be a reproduction of an article on the same subject which was published on July 13 in the Central Daily News (Wang Ching Wei's ^a mouthpiece), but/correction, appeared in the same paper the following day, July 14, stating that the report was not true. (Translation attached).

There are seven leading gambling dens and four small gaming establishments operating in the Western District, O.O.L. The leading dens are operating with permission from the Japanese Military Police authorities, while the small dens have the consent of the Western District Police Bureau.

Chinese-American Daily News, Ta Mei Pao and National Herald :-

ALL GAMBLING DENS IN WESTERN DISTRICT TO BE CLOSED WITHIN THREE DAYS.

It is reported that an order was issued by the puppet City Government yesterday instructing all the gambling dens in the Western District to close within three days. It is stated that the object of this order is to show its determination to do away with the gambling evil in the controlled area.

It is observed that recently the puppet City Government issued a similar order for the closure of the gambling dens in the Western District, but the 10 big gambling dens in the Western District reopened under changed names after remaining closed for a time. The reopening of these gambling dens was said to be due to a desire to relieve the more than 100,000 persons who would have been thrown out of employment through the closure of these dens.

5-1
It is learned that the Western District Amusement Resorts Rehabilitation Association recently made an appeal to the puppet Police Bureau of the City Government for a longer period of operations by gambling dens in the Western District, but this was turned down by the Police Bureau.

Central China Daily News :-

AMUSEMENT RESORTS IN WESTERN DISTRICT TO BE CLOSED WITHIN THREE DAYS

During the most prosperous period of their business 24 amusement resorts were in existence in the Western District. They paid a total of $300,000 monthly to pay the expenses of the Fire Brigade, the Benevolent Organization, the Refugees' Hospital, etc. After the return of the National Government to Nanking, these amusement resorts were once closed by order of the local authorities. A Rehabilitation Committee of Employees of Amusement Resorts in the Western District was organized and made an appeal to the City Government to grant a postponement of the order for six months so as to enable all the employees to maintain their livelihood. At the same time, the amusement resorts were reduced to 10 in all. They agreed to pay the same monthly tax as before when 24 amusement resorts were in existence. In addition to this tax, they are also willing to pay a certain amount to cover the expenses for the establishment of ten primary schools, two middle schools and a public hospital.

As the matter was one which would greatly affect the administration of the City Government, the appeal submitted by the Committee was transmitted by the Shanghai City Government to the Executive Yuan for record; at the same time it issued an order to the Police Bureau of the City Government to close all amusement resorts in the Western District within three days of the date of the order.

July 14, 1940.

Central China Daily News :-

REPORT THAT AMUSEMENT RESORTS IN WESTERN DISTRICT WILL BE CLOSED WITHIN THREE DAYS NOT TRUE

According to yesterday's newspapers, the amusement resorts in the Western District were ordered by the Police Bureau of the City Government to be closed within three days. A petition was forwarded to the Ministry of Police by the Rehabilitation Committee of Employees of Amusement Resorts in the Western District requesting the Ministry to grant a postponement of the order for six months so as to enable all the employees to have a chance to find other jobs. The request was not accepted by the Ministry of Police. The report of the closure of the amusement resorts within three days is, however, found to be untrue.

The "East Asia Charity Relief Association" which was evolved from the Amusement Readjustment Committee, has again been renamed the "East Asia Benevolent Association" (東亞慈善協會) but CHU ZUNG LING is still in charge. The Association will be responsible for issuing "relief" to the unemployed guards who were employed by those gambling dens which are closed.

On July 18, the office of the Association was removed from the "1238 Club", 1238 Yu Yuen Road back to the former site of the Amusement Readjustment Committee, Lane 126, A-23 Kinnear Road, by order of Mr. YAMAKI (山本四郎), Japanese advisor to the Association.

Information is to the effect that the Hillman Club, 121 Yoong Yuan Pang, Lane 1921 off Bubbling Well Road, O.O.L. which closed on June 16, 1940 is endeavouring to secure permission from the Japanese Military Police Authorities to resume operations. Should this be permitted, the club will reopen in the name of "Yee Woo Yuan" (頤和園).

Manager of the "1238 Club," 1238 Yu Yuen Road, took charge of the "East Asia Charity Relief Association," Lane 126, A-23 Kinnear Road, in the place of PAN SAN SING (潘三省).

(Vide Special

and 10/7/40)

This change was caused by dissension between the two persons concerned. At the beginning of July, PAN effected reorganization of the Amusement Readjustment Committee and renamed the "East Asia Charity Relief Association," under the pretext of relieving the "unemployed" guards of the defunct gambling dens. Actually he had the intention of causing embarrassment to those dens which were permitted to reopen by the Japanese Military Police. On July 6, six gambling dens operating in the Western District were ordered to close by the "East Asia Charity Relief Association" in the name of the Japanese Military Police, because of their refusal to pay half of the net income which PAN SAN SING demanded for so-called benevolent purposes. This action on the part of PAN SAN SING incurred strong opposition from the conductors of the six gambling dens concerned who appealed to the Japanese authorities for the suppression of the Association in question. Mediation was conducted by LI SHIH CHUN (李士群), Vice Minister of Police of the New Central Government, and the gambling dens resumed business on July 9.

The dispute came to the notice of Major FUJINO (藤野), in charge of Japanese Gendarmerie in the Western District, who made personal enquiries and found that the action taken by PAN SAN SING against the gambling dens was outside his authority.

Because of this, PAN SAN SING resigned the post of chairman of the East Asia Charity Relief Association and, it is reported, will leave for Japan.

CHU ZUNG LING, the new chairman of the East Asia Charity Relief Association, has obtained the support of the conductors of the leading gambling dens which reopened between June 24 and July 2, 1940.

There are seven leading dens and four small gaming establishments operating in the Western District, O.O.L. which are as follows :-

According an opinion expressed by the conductors, only three of the dens should have opened first, the remainder to resume business gradually.

The conductors of the gambling dens concerned are convinced that their closure was instigated by PAN SAN SING of the "East Asia Charity Relief Association" to cause embarrassment. They are of the opinion that PAN has the intention of bringing pressure to bear upon them so that he will be in a position to obtain half of the net income of the dens for the treasury of the "East Asia Charity Relief Association". The Amusement Readjustment Committee, Lane 126, A.23 Kinnear Road, has been renamed the "East Asia Charity Relief Association" (东亚慈善救济会) and Pan San Sing (潘三有) will still be in charge. He is reported to have obtained the support of the Japanese Special Service Section through Yamaki (山本), Japanese advisor to the Amusement Readjustment Committee for the reorganization under the pretext of relieving the hardships of the "unemployed" guards of the defunct gambling dens. By forming the so-called "East Asia Charity Relief Association", Pan has the intention of causing embarrassment to those dens, especially the "1238 Club", which have been permitted to reopen by the Japanese Military Police Authorities.

On July 2, a party of six persons visited the "1238 Club", formerly the Li Wei Lo Amusement Club, 1238 Yu Yuen Road, O.O.L., and remained on the premises. They claimed to have been despatched by the "East Asia Charity Relief Association" with a view to supervising the business of the club, and stated that similar parties had been sent to the other dens which opened for business recently. They further stated that half of the net income of those gambling dens had to be turned over to the treasury of the "East Asia Charity Relief Association" for "benevolent" purposes. This action on the part of the association embarrassed the conductors of the gambling dens concerned to a considerable extent, and it is Subject. Gambling dens in the Western District, -C.O.L. - Situation.

Made by. D.S.I. Loh Wei Kong Forwarded by D. I. Crawford.

On the instructions of the Japanese Military Police, the gambling dens in the Western District closed on June 16 with the exception of the China Club, 29 Tifeng Road.

Between 1 a.m. and 3 a.m., June 16, four armed members of the Japanese Military Police, visited eight of the nine leading gambling dens and took away the arms and ammunition in possession of the guards. This step was taken by the Japanese Military Police as a precaution against possible opposition to their closure by the conductors of dens, because of the attitude previously adopted by the Li Wei Lo Gambling Den on May 31, 1940.

At 2 p.m., the same day, the following gambling dens ceased operations on orders from the Japanese Military Police :

However, at 3 p.m., June 16, the Li Wei Lo, Monte Carlo, and Yu Yuan reopened, and at 4 p.m. the Broadway Club, and Zao Foong Club also resumed functioning.

Learning that the five of the dens had resumed operations in defiance of the order, a party of Japanese Military Police consisting of about ten men armed with pistols and some 80 Chinese police armed with rifles proceeded by motor trucks to the gambling dens concerned between 9 p.m. and 10 p.m. and four of the dens immediately closed before the arrival of the party, but the Monte Carlo, 184 Kong Kya Jao, off Jessfield Road, O.O.L. was found to be still in operation. The raiding party entered the premises and overturned the gambling paraphernalia and damaged the furniture, and before leaving closed the den.

It is learned that efforts are being continued by conductors of the gambling dens concerned to obtain a resumption of business under new titles or in other forms.

The conductors of the gambling dens now operating in the Western District are making efforts to continue their existence. They have entered into repeated negotiations with the Japanese Military Police using their financial influence, but so far no definite order has been received from the Japanese authorities. The conductors believe that the China Club, 29 Tifeng Road, will not be affected, because of support of WOO SZE PAO (吴士儒), Chief of the Special Service Group of 76 Jessfield Road. It will be remembered that those gambling dens have been advised by the Japanese Military Police to cease operations as from June 15, 1940.

There are nine leading gambling houses operating in the Western District :

I'VE OFTEN WONDERED

Finance Investigation

THE Japanese call it the "Finance Investigation Society." And the name is quite appropriate. They investigate your finances and then take them away from you.

Upon entering the establishment, you are greeted by a Japanese civilian who escorts you into a large room and then the investigating business begins—over a roulette wheel.

The place is located at 82 Yates Road in the heart of the International Settlement. When the establishment was first opened several months, it was called the Sino-Japanese Research Association. The name was changed several weeks ago.

Just how this concern happens to be operating in the Settlement is one of the numerous official secrets they have hereabouts. I understand that because the place has official Japanese backing, the S.M.C. is a bit hesitant about taking direct action to close it up. However, the street fronting the premises of the "Finance Investigation Society" presents a rather interesting spectacle every evening. Police riot vans draw up to the curb and patrolmen and special search parties halt all and sundry.

Bad For Business

As a result of this intense activity in front of No. 82 Yates Road, very little "financial investigation" has taken place on the premises of that establishment for some time. The operators have complained more than once to the police that their search parties are "bad for our business." The police answer to that is that they are acting in interests of law and order. They can't afford to have any shootings around the Yates Road zone. Hence, the search party work continues in that area as a matter of routine.

A considerable flare-up developed Wednesday evening of last week, or maybe it was Thursday, when a Japanese member of the S.M.P. strolled into the picture and sought to remonstrate with members of the search party on behalf of the "Finance Investigation Society." As I get the story, he had no authority to interfere, but that didn't stop him. The argument became heated and the Japanese struck a foreign sergeant. I am told that the sergeant retaliated and that the search party work continued. It is still being carried on.

The Honeymoon Club and the Soong Yuen accordingly closed at 12 noon and 12 midnight of May 31. The Li Wei Lo Amusement Club, however, refused to obey the order, while the two others have adopted a hesitating attitude and still remain open.

The Li Wei Lo Amusement Club was closely connected with the Amusement Readjustment Committee, Lane 126, 20 Kinnear Road, then in charge of LI SZE CHUNG (李士群). But on the departure of LI SZE CHUNG for Nanking to assume the post of Vice Minister of Police of the New Central Government, PAN SAN SING (潘三省) took charge of the Amusement Readjustment Committee, and he is said to be at loggerheads with CHU ZUNG LING (朱頌林), Manager of the LI WEI LO Amusement Club.

Following the receipt of an order for its suspension, CHU ZUNG LING, Manager of the Li Wei Lo Amusement Club, raised an objection and continued functioning. All the guards in the employ of the Club and followers of CHU ZUNG LING were assembled on the premises and armed with some 100 Mauser pistols with a view to taking precautions against possible interference by the Amusement Readjustment Committee. The manager was of the opinion that the closure of the Li Wei Lo Amusement Club would affect the livelihood of a large number of persons who would interfere with peace and order if thrown out of employment. This action on the part of the manager of the Li Wei Lo Amusement Club has caused considerable embarrassment to the Amusement Readjustment Committee and the refusal to close by this Club may affect the prestige of the Committee and cause other gambling dens to follow its example.

A meeting was held later in the home of PAN SAN SING, Lane 126, House 10 Kinneer Road, which was attended by G. Sir,

In accordance with instructions issued by the Senior Detective i/c Chengtu Road, the undersigned in company with C.D.C.'s 227 and 213 proceeded to the vicinity of No. 82 Yates Road at 9.30 p.m. 28/5/40 and there kept observation.

The idea of the observation, was to apprehend any male Chinese leaving the above premises in order to obtain information in support of allegations that gambling was being conducted inside the above premises, (the apprehension to be effected out of vision of persons interested in No. 82 Yates Road to avoid complications.)

At about 10.30 p.m. 28/5/40 two male Chinese were observed to leave the premises in question, on foot, they were followed by the above party of detectives and apprehended on Avenue No. 1 near Yates Road, when they were subsequently brought to the station for enquiries which ascertained the following :-

The identity of the 1st person was a

Mr. F.C. Chu (朱福钧) Broadcasting Manager of Station X.H.H.E. with offices at 579 Kiukiang Road.

The latter it appears attended 82 Yates Road at the invitation of one named Mr. Lee whom he the former was supposed to interview at these premises.

The above Chu states that he entered the premises at about 9 p.m. even date and after explaining the object of his visit, he was directed to a ground floor waiting room by a page boy, who immediately proceeded

About ten minutes later the second apprehended person entered the waiting room, he was one named Jing Chu Pah (秦秋白) salesman for the Shing Jee (信記) Radio Factory situated at 353 Nanking Road.

The latter had visited the above premises in order to collect the sum of $705.68 from the same Mr. Lee for radio accessories supplied to the latter by the above radio factory. Detectives obtained a copy of the radio accessories supplied by this firm which is itemized as follows :-

It appears that whilst waiting for Mr. Lee, both the above persons were served freely with refreshments, resulting in which the above Chu when apprehended by the Police appeared to be under the influence of alcohol, he was therefore not questioned to any extent.

The salesman, who appeared to be sober, when questioned could not supply any information as to whether gambling was being conducted on the premises or not. The latter however, was of the opinion that a Broadcasting Station was definitely being installed on the premises.

Subject... Gambling Den in Western District - reported closure

Made by D.S.I. Loh Wei Kong Forwarded by D.I. Crawford

The news article appearing in the Chinese press of May 30th Issue in connection with the closure of the Hollywood gambling den, known as the Li Wei Lo (利維羅) Amusement Club, 1204 Yu Yuen Road, O.O.L., is incorrect. The management of the gambling den deny having received any such instructions from the Japanese authorities and the den is still functioning to-day, May 30.

It is reported that a meeting is to be held in the Amusement Readjustment Committee, Lane 126, 20 Kinnear Road, in the afternoon of May 30 when the conductors of the gambling dens now operating in the Western District, O.O.L. will be in attendance to discuss the questions of their establishments and their closure. The majority of the conductors firmly believe that they will be ordered by the Amusement Readjustment Committee to close their dens on May 31 or at the beginning of June.

An unconfirmed report is to the effect that the premises of the Li Wei Lo, 1204 Yu Yuen Road, O.O.L. will be used as the "Woosung-Shanghai Garrison Commissioner's Headquarters."

According to information from another source, the gambling dens will resume operations after a certain period because their employees, numbering more than 10,000, will find it difficult to maintain their livelihood after the closure. Therefore, the reduction of dens will be made gradually. Whether this information is true or not remains to be seen.

The Hollywood Gambling Den on Yu Yuen Road was forced to close down yesterday by the Japanese authorities. It is learned that upon its closure the gambling den will undergo repairs and all its paraphernalia will be removed. It is reported that the new government will establish on the premises a so-called "Woosung-Shanghai Garrison Commissioner's Headquarters." According to information from another source, the premises will be used as the headquarters of the Special Police Force.

BRITISH SOLDIER ATTEMPTS TO CUT DOWN FLAGPOLE OF GERMAN BANK

According to an announcement made to-day, on the afternoon of May 26 a British soldier suddenly broke into the Deutsch-Asiatische Bank, a German bank, on Kiukiang Road, with the intention of cutting down the German flagpole on the roof of the bank with a saw and at the same time he destroyed several window panes. He was taken to a Police Station by a police constable. In this connection, the German Consul-General at Shanghai lodged a protest with the S.M.C. yesterday and demanded a satisfactory settlement of the event.----Transocean.

Furthermore according to the Ta Chung News Agency, the British soldier in question was taken to offer an apology to the German Consul-General; hence the matter will probably be settled.

Unrest exists among the conductors of the eleven gambling dens now operating in the Western District, O.O.L., in consequence of a report that the "Amusement Readjustment Committee," Lane 126, 20 Kinnear Road, will close their establishments. They have information that the dens are to be ordered to close at the end of May, 1940, but nothing is definitely known.

An appeal was made recently to the Amusement Readjustment Committee by the conductors of the following gaming houses that they be allowed to carry on their business:-

Japanese Military Special Service Department, and he would forward their appeal to the Japanese Military Special Service Department for consideration.

It is also learned that several gambling dens which closed at the beginning of April and May, still retain the lease of their respective premises and have their furniture and gambling paraphernalia stored in those places.

Open air gambling is at present being conducted by one TSANG CHI PING(張奇平), a notorious loafer in the Western District who has two gambling stalls operating in the Sing Kong Li, Connaught Road, and Zung Zoen Li, Jessfield Road, O.O.L. He is assisted by a number of unemployed guards from the defunct gambling dens. TSANG CHI PING is said to have obtained informal approval of the Western District Police Bureau to conduct those open air gambling stalls and is paying the latter $100.00 a day as protection fee.

Closure Of Badland Gambling Dens Said Slated Early June

The 11 gambling dens still functioning in the badlands area will be closed by the beginning of next month, it is reported from a reliable source this morning.

Promises by the authorities in the area but delayed during the past two months, the reported order to close down the den is believed to be due to the establishment of the joint police body in the "outside roads" area, which is expected to start operating early next month.

Early this month three of the larger gaming dens in the badlands were closed, but 11 continued to operate. The houses which still remain open are Soong Yuen, Li Wei Loo, Yih Loo, Monte Carlo, Jessfield, Autumn Garden, Hillman Club, Yu Yuan, Broadway, Honeymoon and China gambling clubs.

Information has been received to the effect that a "hwo-wei" lottery was re-established on May 14 in the Western District. The headquarters have been given the name of "Yih Li" (益利) situated at 94 Yoong Yuen Pang, off Bubbling Well Road, O.O.L., and is in charge of WOO SZE PAO (吴在保), chief of the Special Service Group of the Chung Kuo Kuomintang Anti-Comintern and National Salvation Army, 76 Jessfield Road, with one LOH PAH LOH (陆伯华), as his assistant. WOO SZE PAO is said to have agreed to pay $500.00 a day to the Amusement Readjustment Committee, Lane 126, No.20 Kinnear Road, for permission to conduct the lottery.

It will be remembered that "hwo-wei" lottery dens in the Western District, O.O.L. were closed on March 31, 1940 in accordance with instructions issued by the Amusement Readjustment Committee. A number of them, however, resumed functioning in April with approval unofficially from certain prominent members of the Special Service Corps of the Chung Kuo Kuomintang Anti-Comintern and National Salvation Army.

Following the formal opening of this headquarters for a "hwo-wei" lottery, the dens which were closed are now making arrangements with WOO SZE PAO for re-starting.

A large new gambling den, backed by Chinese capital and operating under the false front of a foreign recreation club, opened in the heart of the Settlement on Friday night, it was reported yesterday.

The establishment was stated to be run on a grand scale, with gambling games of many descriptions humming busily on the first and second floors.

This was the first report of a large new gambling house opening in the Settlement since the Asia Club on Gordon Road closed down voluntarily about a month ago.

The notorious Asia Club closed down after the conclusion of negotiations between the Municipal Council and the Japanese authorities on the Western extra-Settlement areas.

Sir;

Information has been received from a reliable source to the effect that a gambling den, to be known as the "China Club", with premises at 29 Tifeng Road, formerly occupied by the Shanghai Middle School, is to be opened on the evening of 2-4-40.

The premises 29 Tifeng Road is a spacious three story foreign style house, and is immediately opposite the residence of Sir Elly Kadoorie.

Zia Pao Sung (謝葆生), the present owner of Ciro's Cabaret, 444 Bubbling Well Road, is said to have been appointed manager by Pan San Shing (潘三有), who, since the closing of the Shanghai Amusement Protection Agency Office (a Japanese organization), 470/9 Yu Yuen Road, has been elected as "Chief Representative" of all gambling establishments in the Western Area.

Pan San Shing, it should be noted here, was placed in office by Lee S Chung (李自群) of 76 Jessfield Road.

The Amusement Readjustment Committee has also given permission to the Victoria Club, No.29 Tifeng Road, to commence operation as from April 2, 1940. This club, it will be recalled, was scheduled to open for business in February 1940, but failed due to the fact that the "Shanghai Amusement Supervision Department," the then controlling organ of the gambling establishments, refused to issue a permit.

to carry on business by the committee, it is reported, have paid $150,000.00 each to the organ as a security fund with the exception of the Fu Sung Company (No.12) and the Dah Sung Amusement Society (No.13), the two smaller ones, which paid only $30,000.00 each. Apart from collecting the above fund, the committee will continue to levy protection fees from the dens as the "Shanghai Amusement Supervision Department" did heretofore.

It is reported that the committee has concluded an agreement with the owners of Li Wai Lo Amusement Club (No.2) situated behind the Hollywood Garden, 1204 Yu Yuen Road, and Soong Yuan establishment (No.1), 626 Avenue Haig, by which the latter have agreed to place their business under the direction of the organ and share the proceeds with same.

Meanwhile, the committee has instructed the owners of those dens closed to submit the names and addresses of the armed guards formerly in their employ for the purpose, the committee announced, of devising means for their relief.

On the night of March 31, 1940, the Amusement Readjustment Committee also issued instructions ordering all hwo-wai lottery dens in the Western District, numbering some 200, to close down.

During the past fortnight contradictory reports regarding the fate of the gambling dens in the Western District, O.O.L., have appeared in the local press. Some reports have stated that the gambling dens have suspended operations or are about to close while others contain flat denials of such information.

Although no exact information regarding the situation of the gambling dens is available, it is nevertheless believed that the reorganization scheme as reported by this office on 13-2-40, will be carried out. The gambling dens will, in accordance with an agreement reached between the Japanese Authorities and Wang Ching Wei, be placed under the control of the New Central China Government to be inaugurated on 30-3-40. There are at present 24 gambling dens in the Western District, and a number of the smaller establishments will be closed either through forcible measures or through increased taxes which it is the intention of the Authorities to levy knowing that they will not be able to pay. The larger establishments permitted to remain open for business will be required to furnish between them, a sum equivalent to the protection fees that are paid by those small dens which will be closed as a result of the reorganization.

GAMBLING DENS IN WESTERN DISTRICT ORDERED TO CLOSE DOWN
ON MARCH 29

According to information from reliable sources, the Japanese authorities have decided to order the gambling dens in the Western District to close down on March 29. Should any of the gambling dens fail to observe the order, the Japanese authorities will follow the procedure they have adopted in Nantao by sealing up the establishments and arresting the gamblers and the conductors and subjecting them to heavy punishments.

It is also learned that the Hollywood, the Victoria and other big gambling dens have expressed their willingness to close down their establishments voluntarily and that they are seeking accommodation in Macao in order to resume their activities.

Operators Deny Reported Closure Of Gambling Dens

Operators of Shanghai's notorious gambling dens yesterday vehemently denied reports circulated recently that their establishments would be closed before the month ends.

Interviewed by THE CHINA PRESS, operators of three of the largest houses almost with one accord blamed opposition groups for spreading the "rumors."

"We are not closing today, or at any time in the future," one of the operators said. "Business is good, flourishing, and our customers are satisfied."

Asked regarding the motive of the alleged rumors, the operator stated that "opposition interests backed by enormous financial resources have for a long time been trying to dislodge us from our positions. But they won't succeed," he added significantly.

The operator continued: "If you don't believe we are staying open, just come down and see." He also revealed that with his establishment he was taking no chances. "The place is duly guarded," he said.

Although scheduled to close up on March 10, according to reports, the gambling dens were given a new lease on life on payment of $20,000 each to responsible authorities for further protection. The reports had it that the new lease would be valid until March 31.

In addition to the payment of a flat fee for the "concession" to the puppet city regime and to Japanese quarters, each gambling den also pays a monthly "protection fee." The money paid on March 10, it was stated, was an extraordinary fee, necessitated by increasing pressure exercised by the "opposition interests."

THE CLOSURE OF THE WESTERN DISTRICT CLUBS.

4. The reports in the newspapers regarding the closure of the clubs in the Western District are absolutely untrue; this question of closure is entirely outside the realm of the agreement over the Outlying Roads. Though the "Supervision Department" has been dissolved, another new organization is established to take over the management. The responsible person is one named Lee (李). It is learned that measures for the suppression of opium will be adopted, and that the clubs in the Western District will be gradually suppressed within two years.

Shanghai Silhouettes

THE presence of several policemen and a handful of American Marines in front of 82 Yates Road on Wednesday night had a dampening effect on the scheduled opening of the "Asia Economic Research Society." The new gaming establishment with its big electric sign in numerals, "82," presented an inviting appearance to individuals willing to part with their lucre in the name of "research," but nothing happened. The police say they were on the spot just to see that no "frightfulness" developed. But a lot of people got the impression that the officers were picketing the place.

Speaking of roulette wheels and such like, Mr. G. Godfrey Phillips, Secretary and Commissioner-General of the Shanghai Municipal Council, is reported to have told an interviewer a few days ago that the S.M.C. is planning to issue a statement on the Council's policy concerning gambling in the International Settlement. I understand that it will be a blanket statement, covering all angles of gambling. This is rather interesting news to a lot of people who were beginning to doubt that the Council actually had a policy on gambling.

At 2.10 p.m. 20-3-40, S.I. Bretherton was on patrol on Yu Yuen Road when he saw hire car Lic.No.18085 pull up on the north side, facing east.

S.I.Bretherton became suspicious when a female alighted and hurried away and accordingly brought the car and the five male Chinese occupants to the station.

Here they were questioned and gave their names as:-

1. Zung Shiu Chung (陈子强), 40, Taichow, Teaboy, 407/9 Yu Yuen Road.
2. Lee Yung (李荣), 40, Canton, S/cook, ? Yunnan Road.

5. Ts Ching Pau (朱信保), 40, Yangchow, M/chauffeur, 1417 Avenue Road.

The chauffeur, on being questioned stated that he is employed at the Dah Hwa Hire Car Garage, 313 Seymour Road (Driving Permit No.6738 S.M.C.). At 1.15 p.m. 20-3-40, Weng Ching Yoeng and a female Chinese came to the garage and engaged a car and directed him to drive to Yu Yuen Road. When they arrived outside an alleyway opposite the S.M.C. Public School they stopped and waited for half an hour and Zung Shiu Chung boarded the car. Weng Ching Yoeng then told him to drive east along Yu Yuen Road and when they came to the Paramount Hotel Weng Ching Yoeng told the chauffeur to stop and shouted to two men who were walking on the North foot path and the two men boarded the car.

The two men were Lee Yung and Zung Sing Fung and as they entered the car the female alighted. At this juncture, S.I. Bratherton came on the scene and brought them to the station.

Zung Shiu Chung on being questioned stated he was employed as a tea boy at 470/9 Yu Yuen Road, an office of the Amusement Control Bureau but was paid off on the morning of 20-3-40.

A number of persons were detained on these premises under restraint, Zung stated, and two of these had asked him to help them to escape. These two men are Lee Yung and Zung Sing Fung.

After being dismissed Zung Shiu Chung decided to help them to get away and accordingly went to the home of Lee Yung's friend at 10 Tau Zung Li, Rt. Vallon and arranged with him and Lee's wife to bring a hire car to Yu Yuen Road and promised he would produce the two prisoners.

He returned to his late place of employment and on the pretext of wishing to clean the cells obtained the keys from the Japanese Officer in charge and released the two prisoners, who entered the car and were arrested as told above.

Both the released men state they were arrested some months ago in gambling houses and charges of cheating and detained at 470/9 Yu Yuen Road ever since.

D.I. Tabrum and Inspector Yamaguchi visited 470/9 Yu Yuen Road but could find no one in authority on the premises. The only Japanese there stated he was not aware that the prisoners had escaped.

Lee and Zung had stated that two other persons were detained on the premises but the S.M.P. Officers could find no trace of them.

The particulars of the case were communicated to Mr. T. Robertson, D.C. (Crime) by Supt. Conduit, D.D.O. "B" Div., who instructed that Zung Shiu Chung, Lee Yung and Zung Sing Fang be detained pending a decision by Headquarters as to their disposal, and the other two be allowed to go.

My name is Zung Shiu Chung, age 40, native of Tai-chow, Chekiang, and I am employed by the Japanese Amusement Supervision Office situated at No.470/9 Ai Yuen Road as a tea-boy.

I entered the employ of the above mentioned office on 1-6-39, and receive a wage of $15.00 per month with free food and lodging. Since I worked there I have seen many persons detained and released by the Japanese for alleged violation of amusement rules in the gambling houses.

In Sept. 1939, I saw another 2 male Chinese taken into custody, they were Cantonese and were detained together with some 10 persons previously arrested.

On 10-3-40, this office was disbanded and all Japanese except one of them departed. The prisoners, however, were still detained. I sent food to the prisoners every day and when I went there yesterday (19-3-40) morning, one of the Cantonese prisoners asked me if I could help him to escape. He promised to invite me to a feast if I would do it. He then told me that he had a friend named Wong Ching Yung residing at No.10 Dan Sing Lee, Route Valloen, French Concession, and asked me to go and see him regarding his release. I promised him to consider the matter. I was given $100.00 by the Japanese this morning (20-3-40) and was told that I was no longer required there as the place is going to close down. The money is for my "pay-off". Thinking that it will be a good chance to release the Cantonese, I went to the Cantonese friend's home on Route Valloen, F.C., at about 11 a.m. and told him the news. The man then informed the prisoner's wife

I succeeded in releasing the two Chitonese and took them to the waiting motor car and all of us intended to escape but were arrested by the Foreign policeman who suspected us of being criminals.

New Gambling Den

ALTHOUGH the news has not been generally noised about, Shanghai is scheduled to get a new gambling den in the near future. This one is to be located in the International Settlement and the place will be 32 Yates Road.

The establishment is to be run by the same crowd that controls the Asia Club on Gordon Road and will be operated largely for Chinese only.

I understand that the promoters of the venture have been assured that they will have the same protection given to the Gordon Road establishment and, as a result, are sinking considerable money in the project.

Modus Vivendi

The prevailing tense situation in the badlands reminds me that S. M. C. Chairman Cornell S. Franklin and "Hissoner" Fu Siao-on recently signed an agreement intended to bring into existence a joint police force intended to end all this "wild west" business in Shanghai. It seems that all that remains to be done is to decide on some modus vivendi for the operation of this force. Just when this will be achieved is a matter of considerable speculation about the city at the moment. Some of the lads in a position to know are giving odds that it will not be before 1941.

Shooting of Dau Zung Zien
(陶顺泉) on B'Well Road. O. O. L.

At 1.10p.m. 14/3/40 a telephone message was received from the manager of the New Royal Hotel, B'Well Road, to the effect that a male Chinese had been shot by two others outside the above premises.

C.D.C. 147 and D.S.I. Young together with S.I.s Phillips and Raintry attended and learned that a male Chinese had been shot by two others at the entrance of the lane leading into Delight Villas, next to the New Royal Hotel, and the body removed by the ambulance of the S.C.G.P.B.

Inquiries by D.S.I.s Young and Yao, C.D.S. 283 and C.D.C. 147 learned the injured man to be one Dau Zung Zien (陶顺泉) employed as an unarmed watchman at the Hillman House Gambling Den, 1926 Bubbling Well Road and residing 65 Young Yuen Pang (永源洪) Bubbling Well Road.

On the morning of 14/3/40 he went to work at 6.30 a.m. as usual and at 12noon went home for tiffin. He returned to his place of employment at about 1p.m. and saw five men loitering in a suspicious manner inside the Hillman House compound. out onto the road and walked away west. The injured man followed them with a view to ascertaining their business. When they arrived at the entrance to the lane leading to Delight Villas they turned and two of them, drawing pistols, asked him what he had said to the other watchmen. He denied that he had said anything about these persons and the two armed men then each fired two shots, at him only two of which found their mark.

The victim was removed by the S.C.C.P.B. ambulance to St. Luke's Hospital No. 2 ^{37 Brennan Rd} where he was detained. Dr's chit reads:-

"Gun shot wounds in

(b) Right thigh - through and through.
Condition may be serious."

The injured man's wife, Dao Tsao Sz (陶趙氏), was located and informed of the occurrence but she could throw no light on the matter, when questioned.

A Mauser cartridge case was found on the scene and has been forwarded to A.I.S. for examination.

The notice obviously indicated that the Police Bureau was anxious to gain control of the gambling dens in the Western District from the Special Service Corps of the Chung Kuo Kuomintang Anti-Comintern & National Salvation Army, which has not obtained open recognition of the Japanese authorities or the Chinese residents and which therefore, has no authority whatsoever to govern the gambling establishments. As a consequence, the gambling den conductors approached the Special Service Corps of the Chung Kuo Kuomintang Anti-Comintern & National Salvation Army for advice and were instructed to suspend functioning pending the inauguration of Wang Ching Wei Administration.

These instructions were opposed by the majority of the gambling dens on the grounds that the loss arising from the suspension of business was too heavy.

On the morning of March 11, 1940, the gambling den owners held a meeting in the Hollywood Garden, 1804 Yu Yuen Road, under the joint auspices of the Japanese Military Police and the Special Service Corps of the Chung Kuo Kuomintang Anti-Comintern & National Salvation Army. After

The notice obviously indicated that the Police Bureau was anxious to gain control of the gambling dens in the Western District from the Special Service Corps of the Chung Kuo Kuomintang Anti-Comintern & National Salvation Army, which has not obtained open recognition of the Japanese authorities or the Chinese residents and which therefore, has no authority whatsoever to govern the gambling establishments. As a consequence, the gambling den conductors approached the Special Service Corps of the Chung Kuo Kuomintang Anti-Comintern & National Salvation Army for advice and were instructed to suspend functioning pending the inauguration of Wang Ching Wei Administration.

These instructions were opposed by the majority of the gambling dens on the grounds that the loss arising from the suspension of business was too heavy.

On the morning of March 11, 1940, the gambling den owners held a meeting in the Hollywood Garden, 1204 Yu Yuen Road, under the joint auspices of the Japanese Military Police and the Special Service Corps of the Chung Kuo Kuomintang Anti-Comintern & National Salvation Army. After

The gambling dens in the Western District which were scheduled to close down at the end of February, 1940, in accordance with a reorganization scheme, have been promised by the Shanghai Amusement Supervision Department that the scheme will be postponed for a time.

According to confidential information received by gambling den conductors from persons connected with the Amusement Supervision Department, 9/470 Yu Yuen Road, the Department will withdraw the licences of all gambling dens in the Western District, O.O.L., on March 10 or 20, 1940 when the affairs pertaining to the control of the establishments will be handed over to the Wang Ching Wei administration. Further, in view of the agitation against their closing down, the new controlling organ, it is said, will permit the gambling dens to carry on until May 31, 1940 but will increase the fees by more than 30% and demand payment of the same in advance in a lump sum. By this method, it is expected that the smaller gambling dens, being unable to make such a large payment, will be compelled to close down.

Gambling Dens Now Given To March 20

Reports published by THE CHINA PRESS yesterday that the deadline for the western district vice dens had been extended to March 10 were again outdated yesterday, when it was learned that it had been again extended to March 20.

This further extension, it was announced, would be the last, and was granted in order to give the gambling and opium dens sufficient time to wind up their "rackets" and to enable those of them who so wished to establish "businesses" in Nantao.

According to this report, licenses will be granted for 16 gambling dens in Nantao, and indications that the Chinese City on the southeastern borders of the French Concession would be developed into a second Badlands were stronger than before.

Already four gambling houses, as well as a number of narcotic dens, are operating in Nantao. Unimpressive establishments so far, it is stated that they will also develop into extravagant casinos in time. It will be recalled that an identical situation arose in the western district late in 1938, where the first gambling houses were bleak, wooden structures.

Gambling Forbidden In Nantao

Authorities Will Enforce Order in District

The wholesale closure of newly established gambling houses in Nantao, which was reported last Saturday, might have been due to official action as it is reported by the "Sin Shun Pao" that the Chinese police in Nantao have received orders to forbid gambling, including the "wah wai" gambling lottery. It is stated that many gamblers have been arrested in Nantao during the past few days.

The arrested persons will soon be sent to the headquarters of the Bureau of Public Safety of the new Chinese city regime for questioning. The chief reason for the official action against gambling is said to be preservation of order in the native district where gambling prevention regulations are said to have long been enforced. The Chinese police are said to be continuing to raid gambling dens.

The situation still needs clarification as it was previously reported that gambling house managers in the western district had decided to move their business into Nantao, for otherwise they would be driven out from the area by the new joint special police office in formation by the Shanghai Municipal Council and Chinese police. Following these reports, gambling houses actually came into existence in the native city.

These Nantao establishments are now being suppressed by the Chinese police, while the western district gambling houses have shown no signs of closing. Reports are current that the establishments in "badlands" require a much bigger police force to close them than at first imagined.

"It comes ferociously like a dragon but goes as harmlessly as a worm."

The "it" here refers to the Japanese announcements that the gambling dens in Western Shanghai would be closed by end of the month.

Indefinite Respite

Promises of increased "cumsha" and threats of giving a "Roman holiday" to the armed gangsters on their payroll have won the gambling barons of the Western Shanghai badlands an indefinite respite.

The gambling dens, at least those operated by the more influential racketeers, will not be closed down at midnight tomorrow or on March 10 as previously hinted by Japanese authorities but will continue to flourish for an indefinite period.

Golden Goose

The gambling den operators, according to reliable sources, have convinced the Japanese authorities in charge of the licensing of these vice establishments that until the enforcement of the Outside Road Agreement, there is no need to slay the goose which have been laying the golden eggs.

It is even suggested that the influential gambling den operators have pulled the strings so effectively that the negotiations on the agreement have been again postponed.

Increase In Pay

In order to delay the execution of the death sentence against the gambling dens, the operators are also reported to have offered an increase in their daily tributes to the Amusement Resort Supervisor's Office, which at the present amount to about $1,000,000 each month.

While these "peaceful" negotiations are going on behind the curtain, more drastic action is being taken by the armed gangsters on the payroll of the gambling dens. They have instigated a new crime wave in and around the badlands to warn the authorities that the closure of their "life lines" would bring about a more deteriorating state of affairs in Western Shanghai. It is alleged that the daring robberies on the buses and the numerous highway robberies during the last two weeks in the badlands were also the work of the armed parasites.

Market Soars

Indicating a complete confidence in their own prospects the market value of the first-class gambling den licenses has soared to $100,000. Offers larger than that sum are known to have been made by prospective buyers but no holders of the licenses have so far accepted them. It is generally believed among them that the larger dens have a better chance to continue their existence than the small ones.

In granting the respite to the gambling dens, the Japanese authorities are reported to have imposed several new conditions, including:

Take Precautions

1. That the gambling dens shall take all precautions against shoot ups, clashes and other incidents which may draw unnecessary and unpleasant publicity.

2. That as far as possible the gambling dens should hide their identity behind a disguise as cabarets, restaurants, hotels, theatres, or bars.

3. That the gambling dens must avoid displaying electric signs to attract public attention.

Unless something untoward happens—such as orders direct from Tokyo—there is little likelihood that the number of the gambling dens in the badlands will show any decrease at midnight tomorrow or March 10, the time rumored as chosen for the death of these vice centers.

Nantao Sector

Meanwhile, Nantao is fast becoming the second badlands of Shanghai. Four smaller dens, catering to the lower class, are already in full swing while a fifth one, to be known as the San Hsing "theatre," will be opened soon elaborately equipped and decorated in the Hollywood class.

The new "joint" is located at the former site of the Overseas Bath-House, at the New North Gate, opposite Route Montauban.

Subject: Gambling dens in Western District - agitation against closing down.

Made by D.S.I. Liao Chung Chien Forwarded by D.I. Crawford

Further to report of this office dated 21/2/40 on gambling dens in the Western District being prohibited by the Shanghai Amusement Supervision Department, 9/470 Yu Yuen Road, O.O.L., from illuminating their advertisement boards with effect from February 21, the Shanghai Amusement Supervision Department rescinded the order in the afternoon of the same day after repeated petitions made by the gambling den owners through T.G. Lee (李秋野) otherwise known as G. Akino, a Korean and an influential member of the Japanese Special Service Section.

T.G. Lee presented altogether four demands to Sasaki, Chief of the Amusement Supervision Department, on behalf of the gambling den owners. They are:-

1. That the order instructing the gambling dens not to illuminate their advertisement boards facing the street be rescinded on the grounds that such a step will seriously affect the business of the establishments.
2. That all the gambling dens without exception be allowed to continue operation after February 29, 1940.
3. That in case the second mentioned demand is granted, the gambling dens will reconstruct their entrances so as to give the appearance of theatres or restaurants and thereby minimize criticism from the public.

4. That the protection fee paid to the Amusement Supervision Department may be increased providing the dens are allowed to continue their activities. After consideration Sasaki agreed to accept the first demand but refused to entertain the others saying that he was powerless to deal with them. Nevertheless he promised to refer them to the Japanese Military Authorities.

It is reported that the gambling dens in the Western District have elected Chu Sung Ling (朱松林), conductor of (1) Li Wai Lo Amusement Club, situated behind the Hollywood Garden, 1204 Yu Yuen Road, (2) Yih Lo Club, 368 Avenue Haig and (3) Honeymoon Gambling Den, 42 Great Western Road, to act as their representative in connection with the agitation to remain in existence. Chu is on intimate terms with T.G. Lee and has, therefore, secured his assistance in connection with the negotiation with the Shanghai Amusement Supervision Department.

Although the order prohibiting the illuminating of advertisement boards was rescinded, the Dah Sung Gambling Den, No.41-44, Sing Kong Li, with entrances from Jessfield Road and Connaught Road, which removed all electric bulbs from its signboard on the morning of February 21, made no attempt to reinstal same as the proprietor, Kao Ah Keng (高阿根), has decided to remove the establishment to Nantao. The other gambling dens in Jessfield Road and Brenan Road, including the following, either illuminate a small part of their signs or reduced the lamps on same during the night of February 21, 1940:-

1. Fu Sung Gambling Den, No.10 Ting Nyieh Li (Lane 16), Brenan Road.
2. Sing Yoong Sung Gambling Den, No.1, Ching Kya Hong, off Jessfield Road.
3. Kwang Sung Gambling Den, 135 Jessfield Road.
4. Dah Shing Gambling Den, No.10 Zung Tuh Li (Lane 905) off Jessfield Road.

Those larger establishments situated in Yu Yuen Road and south of that thoroughfare, however, made no alterations to their advertisement boards and carried out operations as usual.

As a further step towards the closing down of the gambling dens in the Western District, the Shanghai Amusement Supervision Department, 9/470 Yu Yuen Road, transmitted telephonic instructions to the various gambling dens in the Western District, O.O.L., on the morning of February 21 ordering them, with effect from today, not to illuminate their advertisement boards which face the street. It is reported that on February 18, 1940, the gambling dens in the Western District, O.O.L., submitted a joint petition to the Shanghai Amusement Supervision Department, No. 9, Lane 470, Yu Yuen Road, requesting that the order for the closing down of the establishments be rescinded. With reference to the report that a Chinese, name unknown, representing all gambling dens in the Western District, O.O.L., has left Shanghai for Tokyo to negotiate for permission to postpone the closing down of the establishments which is scheduled to take place at the end of February 1940, enquiries have been made but the information cannot be confirmed.

However, a report has been current to the effect that there has been a suggestion among the gambling den owners of making representations to Tokyo but it has not been carried out, so far as the majority of the den owners are of the opinion that the problem is one in which the Japanese Military stationed in China is concerned and not the Tokyo Government.

The suggestion of making representations to Tokyo, it is reported, was first broached by Sasaki, Chief of the Amusement Supervision Department, 9/470 Yu Yuen Road, O.O.L., on or about February 10, 1940 when he was approached by a number of the gambling den owners who protested against the order for the closing down of the establishments on the grounds that they had spent huge sums on the enterprises and urged him to maintain the "status quo". Subject: Gambling Dens in Western District to suspend operation at the end of February, 1940 pending reorganization by Wang Ching Wei's Administration.

Made by D.S.I. Lino Chung Chien Forwarded by D.I. Crawford

With reference to the attached report from Bubbling Well Station to the effect that the gambling dens in the Western District have been instructed to cease functioning on February 29, 1940, discreet enquiries have confirmed the report and have elicited the information that the step is the outcome of an agreement reached between the Japanese Authorities and the Wang Ching Wei Administration which is scheduled to be inaugurated on March 15, 1940.

CONFIDENTIAL

According to the agreement, the Shanghai Amusement Supervision Department, 9/470 Yu Yuen Road (Japanese sponsored), which has controlled the gambling dens in the Western District since their formation at the end of 1937, will hand over all affairs pertaining to the gambling dens to Wang Ching Wei's Administration at the end of February 1940 when a reorganization of the establishments will take place. Although the scheme of reorganization to be undertaken is not yet known, it is learned from a reliable source that of the twenty-four gambling dens in the Western District only six to ten of the larger establishments will be permitted to reopen in future but they will be required to furnish between them a sum equivalent to the protection fees paid by those dens to be closed as a result of the reorganization.

The "Hwo-wei" lottery establishments in the Western District, O.O.L., it is reported, will be treated in a similar fashion.

Meanwhile a number of the promoters of the smaller gambling dens and "Hwo-wei" lottery organizations in the Western District are agitating against the order for the closing down of their establishments and are urging Sasaki, Chief of the Shanghai Amusement Supervision Department, 9/470 Yu Yuen Road, to maintain the "status quo."

However, it is generally viewed that the agitation will be fruitless and some of the gambling den conductors are contemplating the removal of their establishments to Nantao. Up to the present, it is learned that the following premises in Nantao have been leased for the purpose of conducting gambling:-

1. No.725 Zao Chia Road, Old West Gate, Nantao.
2. No.1451, Chung Hwa Road, Nantao.
3. No.1603, Chung Hwa Road, Nantao.

The first mentioned house is leased by Kao Ah Keng (葛阿根), proprietor of Dah Sung Gambling Den, situated in Sing Kong Li, Connaught Road, O.O.L., while the second and third houses have on their gates posters bearing the inscriptions, "Commandeered by Japanese Consulate-General," and "Commandeered by the Special Service Section of the Japanese Military," respectively. The actual lessees of these two houses, however, cannot be ascertained at the present.

Gambling Dives To Be Cleaned Up By Nipponese

Rumours have been in circulation for some time past that the notorious "Badlands," situated in the Extra-Settlement Roads area in the Western District, which have gained an unenviable reputation during the past two years as a cesspool of every form of vice, including gambling, opium and heroin smoking and prostitution, would be "cleaned up."

Much speculation has been rife as to the correctness of such reports owing to the fact that as recently as at the Spring Festival Season (Chinese New Year) which has just passed, a new million dollar "gambling joint," was added to the dozens already in operation.

However, the Japanese military spokesman stated at the press conference the day before yesterday that steps would be taken by the Special Service Section of the Japanese Army to close these dens of vice, but no intimation was given as to when such action would commence.

Tokyo Decides

The Evening Echo is in a position to announce that this step was decided upon following the return from Tokyo of Mr. Sasaki, the licensing officer in charge of these establishments, and that a general "clean up" of the large gambling houses situated on the main Extra-Settlement roads will definitely commence on March 1st and that this will be followed by the systematic closure of the scores of smaller "joints" which infest the alleyways in the enclaves.

The Evening Echo is also able definitely to refute the rumours that these vice dens would be closed in the Western District only to open in Nantao.

No Foundation

These reports are entirely without foundation and probably found their inception in the fact that only recently large sums had been sunk in the Badlands in setting up still more dens of vice, and it was doubtless presumed that such risks would not have been taken had not those who put up the capital been tolerably certain of being able to transfer their establishments to some other site, in the event of a "clean up" being decided upon in the Extra-Settlement area.

This clearing of the Augean stables affects not only the gambling houses but will bring to an end the countless opium and heroin dens and houses of ill-fame which infested the district.

Welcome Step

This welcome step will be carried out by the Japanese authorities, as a part of the agreement recently reached between the Shanghai Municipal Council and Mr. Fu Sheng, Mayor of the Shanghai Special Municipality, concerning the policing of the Extra-Settlement Roads area as exclusively reported in the Evening Echo last Monday, and reflects their anxiety to suppress vice and to restore law and order in these areas.

Millions of dollars have been squandered in gambling and other forms of vice; thousands have been ruined and dozens of suicides can be traced directly to these establishments, which have been the cause of numerous murders and robberies with violence.

Embezzlements

Many business establishments have suffered severely through the embezzlements of their employees who became stricken with the "get-rich-quick" fever which these glittering dens of vice appeared to offer a chance to satisfy.

The alleyways leading into the enclaves in the Extra-Settlement Roads area provided convenient bolt-holes for swarms of armed gangsters, who perpetrated their crimes, frequently in the Settlement and Concession, after which they made rapid tracks for this sanctuary, once within which they felt safe from the attentions of the custodians of the law.

Immunity From Arrest

The wave of crime which has swept over Shanghai during the past couple of years was doubtless due to a great extent to the comparative immunity from arrest which this area afforded to the thousands of ruffians who have preyed on the community and has placed tremendous obstacles in the way of the police forces in their efforts to keep down crime.

A sigh of relief will doubtless be indulged in by all residents of the Western district, both foreign and Chinese, at the prospect of peace and order again being restored and great credit must be given to the Japanese authorities for their determined effort to write "finitis" on this dark chapter in the history of Shanghai crime.

It may be recorded that similar steps were taken in Harbin, once a city notorious for its vice dens, which is now a model so far as the absence of crime is concerned.

FRIDAY 1940

Western Area Gambling May Close By End Of Month

Rumour Spreading That Early Signing Of Outside Roads Agreement May Put All Gambling And Drug Dens In West Out Of Business

Will all the gambling dens along the Outside Roads Area as well as the drug dens be closed by February 29? That is the question that is being asked by the operators and employees of the various gambling establishments in the western area during the past several days.

A strong rumour has been spread over the city that February 29 will be the deadline fixed for the closure of all the dens—gambling and opium—in the western district. Whether the order, if it does go into effect, will be the result of successful negotiations between the Shanghai City Government, headed by Mayor Fu Siao-chu, and the Shanghai Municipal Council, for the conclusion of the "outside roads" agreement or whether the step will be taken by the City Government authorities in order to speed up the negotiations is not known.

No official confirmation or denial of the rumour could be obtained yesterday from any source. Most of the officials stated that they had heard of the rumour but that they could neither confirm nor deny it.

Should the order for the closure of all gambling and opium dens in the Western Area materialize, then it is believed likely that the gamblers and narcotic traffickers will move over to Nantao. Here, however, a hitch is likely to occur, as, since the opening of the former walled city a new and independent Amusement Resort Supervisor's Office has been set up and operates completely independently from such an office in the western area of Shanghai.

May Move Elsewhere

The various persons and organizations heading the gambling dens in the western area will be putting up strong arguments to those in authority against the closure of these dens using as a strong argument the amount of money that it brings in for charity and that it provides employment for thousands of men and women.

Of late new establishments—especially high class places—have been springing up like mushrooms and it is rumoured that licences were granted to numerous places in the past months in order to make it harder to effect a closure, should such an order be given.

During the next fortnight a close watch will be kept on any developments and it will probably require more than police to close down all the gambling dens in one night.

I'VE OFTEN WONDERED

BY CARROLL D. ALCOTT

New Gambling Den

RUMORS are going the rounds that one of our leading gambling den proprietors is moving a couple of roulette wheels into the center of the Settlement from his establishment on the outskirts of the city. In fact, one report has it that he moved the wheels of fortune into the Settlement a few nights back.

Some people are just naturally hoggish. Not content with getting half the money in the city, they want it all. If this sort of thing keeps up, the churches and temples will have to run wheels and black-jack games as a matter of self-protection.

Woo Wan News Agency - Release of unfounded report re bombing of Hwo Hwei Lottery House on Robison Road on January 30, 1940.

On January 31, 1940, the Sin Wan Pao (新南報) and the National Herald (新華報), both foreign operated Chinese language dailies, published an article relating to the alleged bombing of the Hwo Hwei Lottery House, conducted by Mao Ah-siang (毛阿祥), in the Kung Yih Lee (公益里), Robison Road.

Investigations by S. 1 revealed the story as entirely false, in consequence of which this Section undertook enquiries with a view to finding out the source of the information.

Neither Chiang Tsung-nyi (蔣宗義) nor Sung Siao-yen (史一雁), two newspaper reporters mentioned in the report by D.S.I. Lim Chung-chiam dated 2.2.40 have been so far proved as being concerned with the fabrication of the report, despite their habit of frequenting the gambling dens and lottery houses in the extra-Settlement area.

The information was supplied by the Woo Wan News Agency (新南通訊社) of 14/55 Museum Road. The proprietor of the agency, Ming Ching-sun (明聲), was called to Headquarters on February 5th and asked to divulge the source of his information. He explained that the item had been prepared from an original report by one Lieu Shih-fang (劉世芳), a part time reporter residing in the Tai Shing Chum (泰生村), Robison Road, which individual has so far not been interviewed.

Ming Ching-sun was informed that the story was absolutely untrue and that a correction would have to appear in to-day's issue of the two papers concerned. Correction appears in the National Herald only, the Sin Wan Pao having suspended operation till after the Chinese New Year.

Before leaving Headquarters, Ming Ching-sun was informed that the dissemination of untrue or exaggerated reports was a very serious offence and that any repetition of the type of deliberate rumour-mongering under report might well spell the suspension of the agency.

Copies of this report are forwarded for attachment to the various files concerned.

Subject. Alleged bombing of Hwo Wei Lottery Headquarters and Yung Yuen Gambling Den.

Made by D.S.I. Liao Chung-chien. Forwarded by D. I. Crawford.

With reference to the attached translation of an extract from the National Herald dated 31-1-40 on the explosion of bombs in the Yih Kee Hwo Wei Lottery Headquarters, situated in Kung Yih Li (公益里), off Robison Road, O.O.L., and the Yung Yuen Gambling Den, Yung Yuen Fang (永源坊) off Bubbling Well Road, O.O.L., on January 30, 1940, enquiries reveal that the report is untrue and is believed to have been fabricated by two newspaper reporters named Chiang Tsung Nyi (蔣忠義) and Sung Siao Yen (沈小研).

It is reported that during the past fortnight, many newspaper reporters have approached the Hwo Wei Lottery Headquarters and gambling dens in the Western District with a view to soliciting new year gifts. The gambling dens ^{which} are said to have received instructions from the Amusement Supervision Department, 9/470 Yu Yuen Road, to abolish such illegal seasonal gifts, have generally declined the request to the great dissatisfaction of the newspaper reporters, among whom Chiang Tsung Nyi and Sung Siao Yen are the most disgruntled. The report of explosion of bombs in the Hwo Wei Lottery Headquarters was therefore made in revenge with a view to causing embarrassment to the management.

National Herald and Sin Wan Pao :-

HWO HWEI LOTTERY HEAD-QUARTERS IN WESTERN DISTRICT
BOMBED

At about 6 p.m. yesterday when a drawing of the lottery was taking place at the Yih Kee (益記) Hwo Hwei Lottery Headquarters conducted by Yao Ah-ziang (毛阿祥) at Kung Yih Lee (公益里) on Robison Road, a large hand grenade was hurled into the premises by some unknown persons. The explosion injured more than 20 of the messengers who had gathered at the place to learn the result of the drawing.

Upon learning of the incident, a party of Japanese and puppet officers were rushed to the place where they conducted a rigorous search, but no arrests were made. The injured men were later removed to various hospitals for treatment. Many of them are said to be in a critical condition.

Another bomb explosion took place at the Yung Yuen (永源) gambling den at Yung An Pong (永安坊), Bubbling Well Road, at about 9 p.m. yesterday when gambling was going on full swing and the place was packed with gamblers. Two hand grenades were said to have been thrown into the place, resulting in the wounding of many gamblers, while some received minor injuries. Great excitement prevailed. When the Japanese and puppets arrived at the place, all the gamblers had already left. The injured gamblers were later removed to hospital for treatment.

Crystal (晶報), a mosquito paper, published the following article on January 30 :-

GAMBLING DENS IN WESTERN DISTRICT

During the past few months many large gambling dens have been established in the Western District and are said to be all doing good business.

Formerly the Asia Club (亞洲總會) at No. 65 Gordon Road was doing the best business among all gambling establishments, but now it has been surpassed by the Chiu Yuan (秋園) gambling den at No. 15 Jessfield Road, because the latter is not so strict as the former in the checking up of the membership cards of the visitors. Moreover, callers to and from this gambling den are provided with the convenience of free transportation by motor cars with black number plates, belonging to six local motor car garages. The cars provided by the Asia Club for the conveyance of its clients are those of the Silver Taxi Service. Though the callers are accorded this facility free of charge, they are, however, required to undergo a strict inspection of their membership passes.

The Chiu Yuan gambling den was originally the private residence of a Cantonese named Tan Hai-chiu (譚海秋). It occupies a large area and is said to be the largest of all gambling dens in the Western District. It is under the management of a Westerner and many students of the University of Shanghai and of Soochow Law College are said to be making a living with this gambling den. It offers a game called "Russian dominoes," which is not used in other gambling establishments. It also provides tables for "Bah-Chiu" games with paper cards. This game is said to be attracting quite a large patronage.

The third gambling den that enjoys a similar notoriety as the above two is the one located at No. 626 Avenue Haig. It also occupies a large area but due to its location which is rather too remote, it is less favoured by the gamblers.

Recently another gambling den known as Yih Loo (亦盧) was established at No. 368 Avenue Haig. The Lien Wei Loo (利匯盧) better known as the Hollywood (好萊塢) is now rather too old, but it still does a good business in the daytime. The Wei Loh Kung (會樂宮) which was newly established on Great Western Road is conducted by the proprietor of the Hollywood. It is well built and provides a dancing floor and story-telling rooms, but its business is not so prosperous as expected. The Yu Yuen Hotel (源園大飯店) at the corner of Bubbling Well and T'ang Roads was opened only recently. It is not well furnished and yet its business is quite above the average, presumably due to convenience of communications.

In addition to the above, there is also one called the Monte Carlo which was originally known as the Yung Sung Company (榮生公司). It is also doing a good business, but the patrons of this den are mostly persons of inferior class and therefore the establishment has not the status of the Asia Club or the Chiu Yuan gambling den.

The following advertisement published by the "Sze Wen Chi" (詩文集), a so-called amusement resort located at No. 478 Yu Yuen Road, appeared in the "Shanghai Daily News" (上海日報), a mosquito paper, on January 17, 1940:-

"We have ordered from the United States a specially made and delicate piece of machinery for amusement purposes. It is rarely seen in Shanghai and is worthy to be recognized as a most wonderful instrument for amusement. It can be used to play games similar to the 'Hwo Gee Tai' (a kind of gambling game). Moreover, it is accurate and reliable and immune from all malpractices. Patrons who have lost in other games can regain their losses with this game. The machine is now on display at this place and is ready for use."

Western Shanghai Area Special Police - notice re suppression of illegal business

On September 10, a circular notice was issued by the Western Shanghai Area Special Police Force reiterating the order concerning the suppression of gambling dens and opium establishments in the area under its jurisdiction. The notice states that since inauguration, the Western Shanghai Area Special Police has rigidly enforced the order issued by the Ministry of Police and the Shanghai City Government in respect of suppression of illegal enterprises as stipulated in the agreement governing the policing of western area. Although all known establishments have been eradicated, unruly elements may escape the attention of Police by secretly operating gambling and opium establishments. The notice concludes by stating that persons who conduct gambling in ballrooms will be severely punished and those who grant lease of their houses for the establishment of gambling and opium dens will be dealt with accordingly.

It is learned, however, that gambling continues in the premises of the former Winter Garden, 1505 Yu Yuen Road, O.O.L.

Over A Tree

Yesterday's trouble at the Argentina Night Club, which was erroneously reported to be the result of a raid, actually developed when the servants of a Chinese in an adjoining compound felled a tree which crashed into the Argentina grounds, damaging some furniture.

The servants then arrived to cart off his tree, but a Russian watchman, named Sodnikoff, refused to let them have it unless he paid for the damage it had caused. The Chinese then left but soon returned with six policemen and a civilian who desired to beat up the watchman.

When the watchman indicated that he didn't care to be beaten up and the night club's book-keeper called the headquarters of the Western Area police force, the would-be "musclemen" disappeared.

The misunderstanding arose when the policemen were seen entering the compound of the Argentina Night Club, which conducts gambling openly, roulette, as well as Chinese dice games. The fact that the club is flourishing, gambling and all, in spite of Commissioner C.C. Fan's oft-repeated intention to close all such institutions, led to the report, when police were seen at the night club, that the Western District Police Chief had finally decided to transform words into action.

However, gambling will be on as usual at the Argentina tonight, making profits for its three owners—reported to be a Russian jeweler, another Russian, and a Rumanian dentist.

Mayor Protests Operation Of West Area Game Dens

Writes To Doyen Of Consular Body Requesting Him To Take Action Against Foreigners
Owning And Running Establishments

Protesting the alleged functioning in the Western District of Shanghai of several gambling establishments owned by foreigners enjoying extraterritorial rights Mayor Chen Kung-po of Greater Shanghai was reported last night to have sent on Friday a letter to Mr. Poul Scheel, Doyen of the Consular Body, requesting him to notify all foreign gaming house operators to abide by the modus vivendi agreement signed between the Chinese authorities and the Shanghai Municipal Police.

The complete text of the letter follows, according to the Central Press:

"With reference to prohibit gambling practice in the Western Area, you were requested to notify foreign residents of different nationalities in Shanghai to observe the regulations of the signed modus vivendi agreement—stop gambling and cease to indulge in similar enterprises.

"Now, there are foreign nationals of questionable characters opening establishments for gambling purposes in the Western Area. The most noted ones are the "Argentine" and "St. George" and a few other secret dens operated under disguise, by foreigners who rely on being foreign nationals, so disobey Chinese laws.

Police In Difficulty

"The police of the Western Area has extreme difficulties to handle such cases because it is necessary to obtain first a search warrant from the concerned Consulate before any search of premises can be effected. These bad foreigners usually depend on their extraterritorial privileges to carry on evil practices so that a situation is created whereby new gambling dens begin to operate soon after old ones are raided. Therefore, the gambling evil in the Western Area can never be stopped, and the police in the said area can never carry out orders from this office.

Foreigners To Be Arrested

"It is hereby decided that henceforth orders will be issued to the Western Area Police to arrest gamblers irrespective of their nationalities and close down dens. The concerned Consulates will be notified later for transfer of offenders of foreign nationality. This method will facilitate the functioning of the said prohibition law and will help restore order.

To Curb Gambling

Mayor Writes To Scheel For Cooperation

As a further step toward the realization of the policy to suppress gambling and similar evils in the western district of Shanghai where some gambling houses owned and operated by foreigners are said to be still carrying on their business under the protection of extraterritoriality, Mayor Chen Kung-po sent a letter yesterday to Mr. Poul Scheel, Senior Consul-General, requesting him to notify all foreign residents to observe the terms of the modus vivendi signed between the Chinese authorities and the Shanghai Municipal Council, the Central Press reported last night. The full text of the letter, according to the news agency, is as follows:—

"With reference to prohibit gambling practice in the Western Area you were requested to notify the foreign residents of different nationalities in Shanghai to observe the regulations of the signed Modus Vivendi—stop gambling and cease to indulge in similar enterprises.

"Now, there are foreign nationals of questionable characters opening establishments for gambling purpose in the Western Area. The most noted ones are "Argentine" and "St. George" and few other secret dens operating under disguise rely on foreign nationals to disobey the Chinese laws.

Extreme Difficulties

"The police of the Western Area has extreme difficulties to handle such cases because it is necessary to obtain first a search warrant from the concerned consulate before to effect any search at the premises. These bad foreigners usually depend on this privilege to drag along their evil practice so it creates a situation that new gambling dens begin to operate soon after raids are over. Therefore the gambling evil in the Western Area can never be stopped and the police in the said area can never carry out orders from this office.

"It is hereby decided that henceforth orders will be issued to the Western Area Police to arrest the gamblers irrespective of their nationalities and close down the dens. The concerned consulates will be notified later for transfer offenders if gamblers of foreign nationals are involved, thus it would expedite the functioning of the said prohibition law and bringing the matter in order.

"You are cordially requested to transmit this communication to parties concerned and thank for your kind attention."

Move To End Farren's, Eventail Gaming Made

Revealing that the first part of the campaign to close down gambling dens in the Western district had been complete, Mr. Pan Dah, Commissioner of the Western Area Special Police force, declared that the next move to close foreign-operated establishments is now underway and is expected to show results within the next few days.

An official request, it is learned, was made by Mayor Chen Kung-po of the Shanghai Special Municipality to the Shanghai Consular Body, urging the foreign consular representatives to curb gambling dens still operating in the "outside roads" by foreigners who enjoy extrajurisdictional rights.

A joint gambling enterprise which was being sponsored by the Chinese dens closed down last week by the authorities, was established at Del Monte's but remained open only for one day.

Some new construction work which had been carried out at the premises were seen being taken down this morning, and it is believed that the den will not open again.

Two Still Open
Meanwhile, the gambling establishments at Farren's and the Eventail night club remained open last night, despite orders issued by Mr. Pan Dah, commissioner of the Western Area Special Police Force, for the closing of all gambling dens in areas under his control by the end of May.

The two dens were the only ones that defied orders of the police chief, it will be noted. On June 3, Mr. Pan declared to the Evening Post that he would see to the closing of the gambling establishments within 48 hours.

Difficult Task

In an interview with the Evening Post this morning, Mr. Pan declared that although the two dens failed to close down last night, he did not expect them to remain long in business. Mr. Pan indicated that immense difficulties were confronting him in the closing of the two dens.

Three of the five major dens, the Chateau International, the China Club, and the Union Club, were closed on May 31, it will be recalled.

Police Chief Declares Gambling Ended

Mayor Chen Kung-po, of the Greater Shanghai Special Municipal Government, forwarded an official letter on Wednesday to the Senior Council of the Consular Body in Shanghai asking the latter to request foreign authorities concerned to co-operate with Chinese authorities in closing foreign-managed gambling houses in the Western District, it was learned from official Chinese quarters yesterday. All Chinese-owned gambling houses in the same district, including the biggest ones, were recently ordered closed by local Chinese authorities.

No details of the Mayor's letter were disclosed but it was learned that it explained that the establishment of gambling houses in the district by foreign interests was contrary to the agreement signed between the Shanghai Municipal Council and the Chinese city regime prior to the formation of the Western District Special Police Bureau.

Mr. C. C. Fan, Commissioner of the special police recently declared that he would see to it that there would be no revival of gambling activities in his district following the closure of Chinese gambling houses. He made the statement following rumors that the biggest gambling house in Avenue Haig would reopen under a foreign name, forming a syndicate with six other gambling houses already closed.

Gambling dens in the Western District

The "East Asia Club" (東亞俱樂部), a small gambling den located at House 79 Yah Sze Loong, off Ferry Road, which recently came into existence, was closed on June 20 in view of possible action by the Western Shanghai Area Special Police Authorities.

The East Asia Charity Association, Lane 1032, 25 Yu Yuen Road, previously in charge of supervision of gaming establishments in the Western District, has ceased functioning, subsequent to the recent closure of the gambling dens in the extra-Settlement roads area.

According to information obtained, endeavours are being made by "guards" of the defunct gambling dens in the Western District to resume gaming activities in co-operation with their former employers. They attempted to use the premises of the "Argentina" club, 626 Avenue Haig, but their efforts are said to have been temporarily frustrated in view of firm attitude on the part of Mayor Chen Kung Poh.

GAMBLING DENS IN THE WESTERN DISTRICT - SITUATION.

The "Chiu Iang" Hotel, a new establishment at 452 Avenue Haig, did not open on June 2, in consequence of an order from the Western District Japanese Military Police. This hotel was prepared to commence operations at 3 p.m. June 2, when verbal instructions were received from Major Tsukimoto () of the Western District Japanese Gendarme ordering it to refrain from functioning.

The decision against the "Chiu Iang" Hotel is reported to have been adopted by the Japanese Authorities ostensibly due to a complaint made by the Deutscher Garten Klub, 454 Avenue Haig, through the medium of the German Consulate, but the financial problem is believed to be the real cause for the action. It is stated that according to previous negotiations, the new establishment was permitted to open on condition that it pay the various fees hitherto borne by the defunct three gambling dens, namely, the Loh Kue Hotel, China Club and Union Club. However, the "Chiu Iang" Hotel is said to have agreed to pay only half of the sums previously paid by the three dens.

Endeavours are now being made by the Management of the "Chiu Iang" Hotel to reach an understanding with the Japanese Authorities for its establishment.

Following closure, the employees of the China Club, 29 Tifeng Road and the Union Club, 6 Tifeng Road, have been paid off. The China Club employees were paid $30.00 each, whilst those in the employ of the Union Club were paid $40.00 each.

According to information obtained, the three gambling dens now operating in the Western District, O.O.L., will amalgamate into one establishment and will function in the form of a club. The amalgamation is reported to take place in the near future, possibly at the end of May or the beginning of June, 1941.

It is stated that LEE SHIH CHUN (李士群), Minister of Police of the Nanking Government, has instructed the gambling den conductors through the medium of WOO SZE PAO (吴士宝), to make necessary preparations for the amalgamation and to operate the club at a new venue. However, there is a likelihood that the premises of the Loh Kuo Hotel, a gambling den at 346 Avenue Haig will be used as the site of the new club, if no other suitable premises can be found.

It will be remembered that the three gambling dens were ordered by Mayor Chen Kung Poh to close down during the middle of the current month, but they continue functioning through the efforts of WOO SZE PAO. The Mayor has insisted on the suppression of the gambling dens in the Western District as a step towards the elimination of evils in that area apart from upholding his prestige. He is said to have appealed to Mr. WANG CHING WEI in this connection. However, LEE SHIH CHUN was of the opinion that the immediate closing down of those gambling dens in the extra-Settlement roads area will affect the "livelihood" of the members of the Special Service Group as far as the financial problem is concerned. Gambling dens and opium hongs in the Western District

Despite verbal instructions recently given by the Shanghai City Government to the effect that all gambling dens operating in the Western Area, O.O.L. would have to close, the following four large gambling dens continue to operate :

- | | |
|------------------|-----------------|
| 1. Loh Kuo Hotel | 346 Avenue Haig |
| 2. China Club | 29 Tifeng Road |
| 3. Hwa Loh Hotel | 79 Yu Yuen Road |
| 4. Union Club | 6 Tifeng Road. |

According to information received, conductors of these four gambling dens have reached an understanding with Woo Sze Pao (吴志保), Chief of the Defence Corps and the Special Service Group Headquarters, 76 Jessfield Road, and the Japanese Military Police, whereby the latter would support the conductors against any action adopted by the City Government Authorities. Woo is said to have told Col. Loo Ying, Commissioner of the City Government Police, of the attitude of the gambling dens conductors, and urged the former to impress upon Mayor Chen Kung Poh that any drastic attempts on the part of the City Government to close the dens may result in unpleasant consequences. It is reported that with the support of Woo Sze Pao and the Japanese Military Police, the conductors of the gambling dens are prepared to offer armed resistance if a forcible attempt by the City Government authorities is made to close them. To meet any emergency a number of firearms have been stored in readiness at the China Club, 29 Tifeng Road.

However, with a view to reaching an amicable settlement the conductors have appealed to the City Government Authorities. It is stated that the former agreed to close their establishments for a short period provided that they be allowed to reopen them after the new Police Force is established in the Western Area. For permission to continue operations the conductors have suggested to pay a large sum of money to the Shanghai City Government. Both suggestions Mayor Chen Kung Poh disapproved of and said that he intended to bring about the closing of the gambling dens which operated in the area under his control.

Further information to hand is to the effect that the conductors of the four gambling dens now operating have each agreed to raise the daily "protection fees" from $12,000.00 to $15,000.00. This protection fee is paid to the East Asia Charity Association, Lane 1032 , 25 Yu Yuen Road, of which Mr. Yamaki is in charge. This decision was made with a view to furthering the support given by the Japanese authorities.

There are 42 opium hongs in the Western District, O.O.L. They have rented houses in Nantao preparatory for removal if instructed to remove by the City Government. They are, however, making efforts to secure permission from the Japanese and City Government authorities to continue business at their present addresses.

Gambling dens in the Western District - situation

The Shanghai City Government recently notified the gambling dens operating in the Western District to cease functioning. The Police Bureau was instructed by Mayor Chen Kung Poh to take action against those dens in the event of their refusing to obey the order. According to information received, it was proposed that on the evening of March 7 to have the reserve unit of the City Government Police raid the gambling establishments.

The conductors of the gambling dens appealed to the Japanese Military Police. The Japanese Gendarmerie, it is reported, decided against the proposal of the City Government Police to close down the gambling establishments. As a result, the City Government did not proceed with the proposition.

The following four large gaming establishments are still operating at the following places :

IMPRESSMENT OF CHINESE ALONG SHANGHAI-HANGCHOW RAILWAY

Impressment of Chinese is taking place in the occupied areas, the so-called "kingly way happyland". Our reporter has secured the following information from a person who was recently impressed but who succeeded in making his escape :-

"Early this month, Japanese soldiers at Changan (長安) and Siashih (石碛) along the Shanghai-Hangchow Railway suddenly closed all the thoroughfares in the vicinity and carried off 80% to 90% of the young people living in this area and detained them near a mountain north of Kashing. The youths were subsequently sent to the front to fight the guerrillas. Their fate is unknown.

"I was held up at a place along the Shanghai-Hangchow Railway and sent to Shanghai where I was detained in a compound next to the Japanese military headquarters in Yangtsepoo. There were already some 500 people there. On the night of February 14, the Japanese soldiers packed up their belongings. It was said that they were being sent to Hainan Islands. The 500 young men who had been impressed became uneasy. As the guards were somewhat slack at that time, scores of them succeeded in making good their escape. It is said that the people impressed had no food to eat while many were whipped. It is believed that those who could not escape have been sent away and now have little chance to escape."

Cheng Yien Pao, Chinese-American Daily News, Shun Pao, National Herald :-

According to information secured by the Dah Kwan News Agency, impressment by Japanese soldiers along the Shanghai-Hangchow Railway is proceeding.

Certain arrivals in Shanghai yesterday said that the Japanese soldiers started to impress Chinese along the Shanghai-Hangchow Railway on February 16 and since then some 1,000 able-bodied men have been carried off. Of this number, some 400 people were conscripted at Siashih. All the shops in this town suspended business for people were afraid to go out. Normal conditions in this town were restored after five days. People seized at Changan, Kashing, Haining, Kashan and other places were placed on trains which carried them off in a northerly direction.

We would like to give our sincere advice to the merchants. It is true that merchants have to make profit, but there should be a limit to such profit. If they care only for profit without due regard to the general situation, they are liable, when the hostilities are over, to face retribution on account of the atrocious exploitation of the people in which they are engaged at present, even though they may be able to escape the law at present. It is still not too late for one who has gone astray to become upright again. It is, therefore, hoped that those merchants who are raising commodity prices to exploit the public will quickly come to their senses. .

NUMBER OF UNEMPLOYED IN SHANGHAI RAPIDLY INCREASING

Due to the European War and the obstruction of transportation, industry in Shanghai has been seriously affected and in order to curtail expenses, many factories have discharged some of their workers.

It is learned that owing to the difficulty of finding work even at low wages, workers in the interior districts are coming to Shanghai to find work. As a result, the number of unemployed in Shanghai is rapidly increasing.

Chinese-American Daily News (comment) :-

MERCHANTS SHOULD COME TO THEIR SENSES

Yesterday we published an article asking the authorities of the Foreign Settlements to adopt strict sanctions against the unreasonable increasing of commodity prices so that the prestige of the authorities can be maintained and the burdens of the people can be alleviated.

To-day we would like to submit the following views for consideration by merchants in Shanghai:-

China is now engaged in a hard and difficult struggle. At this critical stage, we all should be firm and do our utmost for victory. Any one who thinks that he can utilize the present opportunity to do things detrimental to others but beneficial to himself is unworthy of his country.

Ever since Shanghai became an isolated city, the influence of the Government has diminished with the result that great changes have taken place in the city. The residents, however, have remained firm and have encouraged one another with examples of loyalty. They are leading an upright life in the face of many hardships; they are looking for the advent of a brighter day and are therefore willing to go through a period of darkness for the time being. Unfortunately, a small section of local merchants, disregarding the welfare of the general public, have frequently made use of their influence and wealth to hoard commodities and to manipulate the prices of goods with the result that the poor people, who constitute a majority in the local population, have been made to face increased burdens and hardships.

Assassination of Loo Ting in the French Concession

At 9 a.m. February 18, 1941, Loo Ting (盧鼎), conductor of the Hwa Loh Club, a gambling den at 792 Yu Yuen Road, was fatally shot by a male Chinese, named Voong Dze Tuh (馮樹德) on Route des Soeurs, French Concession, as he was leaving his home, House 6 Tuh Foong Li (德豐里), Route Vallon. Loo was formerly a journalist employed with the Dah Kung Pao and later a partner of the now defunct Li Vai Lo Amusement Club at 1238 Yu Yuen Road.

He received two bullet wounds, one in the buttock and the other in the body. He died instantly.

It is of interest to note that a previous attempt was made on Loo Ting's life on November 21, 1940 at the Dah San Shing Restaurant, 679 Foochow Road at his marriage ceremony.

Loo Ting's assassination is said to be an act of vengeance and has no political significance. The assailant was shot and wounded by the French Police and is now detained in St. Marie's Hospital undergoing medical treatment. Two pedestrians also received gun-shot wounds during the affray.

GAMBLING DENS CURTAILING EXPENSES

According to information from reliable sources, the report that the Special Police Force will be established on March 1 is creating much anxiety among the operators of the gambling dens in the Western District. Past experience has taught them that each time a change takes place, they will again be asked to pay protection fees.

These gambling dens are curtailing expenditure and have abolished several facilities accorded to their patrons. Hereafter there will be no more free meals or transportation facilities because these two items, especially the latter, constitute their principal items of expenditure. The gambling business is also being affected by the trade depression.

TO NANTAO.

The Western District Police accord which was signed on February 1 prohibits the existence of all improper enterprises in the outlying road area in the Western District. It is said that all improper enterprises will be ordered to cease operations when the Western District Special Police Force has been formed.

The various gambling dens in the Western District have received notification to this effect from a certain party and are preparing to remove to other places in order to carry on their business. The Loh Kuo Hotel at No. 346 Avenue Haig, the largest gambling den, has decided to remove to the Small World Amusement Resort on Foh Yeu Road in Nantao, the buildings of which are undergoing repairs. The various gambling dens in the vicinity of Tifeng Road and Yu Yuen Road are also planning to remove to Nantao and are, therefore, seeking for suitable premises.

Gambling and opium smoking will become more rife in Nantao after this. This "Badlands" No. 2 will soon become a cesspool of crime.--- Dah Kwan News Agency.

SUPPRESSION OF GAMBLING DENS IN THE WESTERN DISTRICT

It is learned that the authorities of the International Settlement have approved the appointment of the Deputy Commissioner of the Special Police Force. Both parties will exchange lists of staff. No statement has been issued regarding the closing of gambling dens and other evil resorts in the Badlands or to the collection of taxes.

It is believed that it will not be difficult to collect taxes, for the revenue will be used for the expenses of that district, but it is feared that trouble may arise over the closing of gambling dens.

West Area Dens Plan To Close

Planning To Remove To Nantao As New Police Start Functioning

All gambling and opium dens in the Western District were yesterday reported to be making preparations to close or remove into the Nantao area in anticipation of the formation of the Western area Special Police Force shortly, when all extra-policing activities will be eliminated.

The special political police of the Nanking regime with headquarters at 76 Jessfield Road, who have been operating in the extra-settlement area, are expected to conclude their special activities following establishment of the new police body, it is learnt.

The formation of the Special Police Force will also eliminate the activities of the police of the Shanghai Municipal Government and Japanese gendarmerie in the Western District.

The question of closing the gambling and opium dens in the area to be administered by the new police force will be discussed between Mr. C. C. Pan, Commissioner-elect of the Joint Zone Police Force, and Superintendent J. B. Clissold, S.M.C. nominee for the post of Deputy Commissioner to the new police body, it was learnt.

First to undertake preparations for removal was the Luk Kwok Hotel, reputed to be the largest gambling den in the "badlands," which is understood to have secured new premises in the Nantao area.

They were apprehended on information supplied by one TAN YU CHI (戴有琪) who is in custody of the Japanese authorities, on suspicion of being concerned in the assassination of a member of the Japanese Military Police which took place on October 19, 1940 at Chien Ka Hong, inside Lane 668 Yu Yuen Road, O.O.L. During the raid, all gamblers were searched on the premises of the den, but the gambling establishment was permitted to carry on operations.

Trouble in the Lien Sung Amusement Company, a gambling den on Yu Yuen Road.

In the evening of February 4, 1941, at about 9.30 p.m., a fight occurred in the Lien Sung Amusement

Company (联生公司), 1st house of Lane 259
(Ching Yuen Li 慶云里), off Yu Yuen Road, O.O.L., between members of the Special Service Group and the guards of the company. Several shots were exchanged with the result that a restaurant waiter was wounded and a number of windows and furniture belonging to the Company were smashed. Further trouble was cut short by the arrival of a party of Chinese police led by a Japanese Gendarme who succeeded in apprehending three members of the Special Service Group and two of the guards. The Special Service Group members were later released while the guards are being detained in the headquarters of the Japanese Military Police at Western District, 94 Jessfield Road, O.O.L.

Enquiries reveal that the Lien Sung Amusement Company is a small gambling den recently established by one FENG NGOH CHING (馮鶴慶), a loafer in the Western District, O.O.L. Despite negotiations, the conductor has continually refused to pay "protection" fees to the members of the Special Service Group and the Chinese police.

With a view to causing disturbance, three members of the Special Service Group attached to the section at 1 Zung Yoen Li, Kong Ka Jao, off Jessfield Road, C.O.L. and 818 Yu Yuen Road, proceeded to the Lien Sung Amusement Company at about 3 p.m. February 4 and indulged in gambling. Having lost some $500.00, they demanded the payment of $100.00 each as locomotion. This demand was rejected by the inmates whereupon a quarrel occurred between the guards and the members of the Special Service Group which developed into a fight, and one was injured.

Apparently in the spirit of revenge, some ten members of the Special Service Group attached to the same unit arrived at the Lien Sung Company at 9.30 p.m. the same day, several of whom are said to have been armed with Mauser pistols. On arrival, they commenced smashing the windows and furniture of the den and attacking the guards therein, which resulted in a considerable damage being done. It is stated that the members of the Chinese Police who were led by the Japanese Gendarme took advantage of the opportunity to cause further damage to the gambling establishment. This den remains closed to-day, February 6.

Unexpectedly another fight broke out in the den at 9.35 p.m. on the same day. A large number of "policemen" were sent to the scene to arrest gamblers by the City Government Police Bureau. At the time of the trouble, two or three shots were fired. Several persons were arrested. A waiter of the Hungarian Restaurant named Sih Ah-foh (史阿福), aged 57, was wounded by a stray bullet. Three Near Death, Many Shot In Gambling Den Gun Battle

At least three persons are near death and several others were wounded last night when a pitched gun battle occurred in a gambling den off Yu Yuen Road at 9.30 p.m.

As the establishment is just half a block beyond the jurisdiction of the Settlement Police, usual sources of information were unable to confirm the exact cause of the battle.

Ta Tao policemen interviewed at the scene of the trouble said that six of their members in uniform and carrying rifles visited the establishment to "have a little talk" with the manager. After a brief discussion, an argument broke out, and thugs in the employ of the house engaged the police in a major gun duel, the policemen reported.

The thirty gamblers playing at the time stampeded for the door breaking it down as they went, but bullets which filled the air left three of them critically wounded on the floor and wounded an undetermined number of others less seriously.

The police suffered no casualties.

A boy in the employ of the Hungaria Night Club opposite the den was struck in the head by a stray bullet as he crossed the street to investigate the trouble. He was removed to Paulun Hospital by the Fire Brigade Ambulance which was summoned by his employer. The other victims, however, were hustled away to an unknown destination, and their condition could not be learned.

When the place had been emptied, the elaborate den was systematically wrecked. Every window was broken and the gaming tables were smashed into kindling. Four policemen were guarding the wreckage at an early hour this morning. A Russian gambling place on the floor above remained undamaged and in full operation.

What was said in the interview between the police and the owner of the place raided is not known. One source laid the origin of the battle to quarrelling factions of gamblers.

Four Injured in Gang War in Badlands

Shot at by Gangsters

Three Chinese were slightly injured and one was lying fatally wounded at the St. Luke's No. 2 Hospital following a fight between two rival gangs at the Lin Seng gambling den, just behind the Hungaria Restaurant at 372 Yu Yuen Road.

The fight between the gangs first started at 3 p.m. yesterday at the gambling den and involved some twenty men. During the fight three men sustained slight injuries, requiring only first aid.

At 3:30 p.m., however, the fight was resumed and the management of the gambling den called out the City Government police. Arriving at the den, the Chinese policemen were fired at by one of the gangsters. The bullet missed its mark, but hit a Chinese servant of the establishment in the head.

The victim, whose name was given as Sing Ah-foh, was taken to the hospital in an emergency ambulance. His condition was believed to be critical and little hope was entertained for his recovery.

The Lin Seng gambling den, which is situated in Ching Yung Li, off Yu Yuen Road, is outside the jurisdiction of the International Settlement police. It was reported that the Chinese police had arrested several gangsters and had taken them for questioning.

Wrath Of The Gods

MAYBE it's simply a coincidence but employees at the Chateau Internationale, Shanghai's reputedly biggest, most streamlined, and for the present best patronized gambling palace, are taking no chances with their personal safety and welfare in view of what occurred during the first few days of the lunar New Year. The establishment was repeatedly damaged by fires. Although the blazes were promptly extinguished, everyone connected with the joint, from the managers to coolies, feared that they had, for some inexplicable reasons, invited the wrath of the Gods. So for the past few days they have been offering large quantities of candles, incense and paper money to the gods.

Customers wondered if they had not been over-cautious with their religion, thereby accounting for the fires.

THE ROOT OF LOCAL CRIME

Nearly all the pages of the newspapers of February 5 were occupied by reports relating to gambling. For instance, "Jui Ziang-piao Murders His Cousin for Gambling", "Fight Between Hireling and Mercenary Policeman in Gambling Den on Yu Yuen Road", "Ronin Killed by Mistake in Li Yuen Gambling Den at Nantao", "Hawkings, a British Gambler, Charged" and "Evildoers Intimidate Gambling Den".

When Chen Kung-po assumed the post of Mayor, he made public "three schemes of administration," one of which calls for the suppression of gambling. At present, not only is gambling being conducted openly in the areas under his control, but over 90% of the crimes in this city originated at such gambling.

All negotiations have been conducted by Hal. P. MILLS, an American journalist, who resides at Room 320, Palace Hotel, Mr. Mills in connection with negotiations recently sent a cable, which cost $ 100.00, to Mr. Damon HYDE who is at present in Manila. The cable is believed to have advised Mr. Hyde to accept the proposal for the sale of the Del Monte Cafe.

It is said that this group is willing to pay any price for the establishment.

It is proposed to convert the Del Monte Cafe into a fashionable Casino with roulette-wheel and all other gambling. The upper floor of the premises will be used for this purpose while dancing will carry on as usual.

A special permit to carry out gambling in the Cafe is said to have been already obtained by Mr. Sasaki from the Western Branch of the Japanese Gendarmerie.

Although it is believed that Mr. Hyde has sold the Del Monte Cafe to a group of Chinese, he, nevertheless, still appears to have some interest in the establishment.

A Mr. TONG, representing the owners of the Del Monte Cafe, is said to have asked the sum of $ 250,000.00 as the purchasing price for the Cafe. It is said that if he is allowed to retain a certain interest in the proposed Casino the sum of $ 250,000.00 will be reduced by half.

Negotiations in connection with the sale of the Cafe have not yet been concluded.

Police Intensifying War On Vice Dens In Settlement

Raid On Newly-Opened Club Contemplated; West Area Gaming Dens Fear Action Following S. M. C.-City Government Police Pact

Following their successful raid on a foreign-operated gambling den on top of the defunct Silver Palace Dancing Hall, at the corner of Avenue Foch and Weihaiwei Road, on Saturday afternoon, detectives from the Shanghai Municipal Police were yesterday planning to execute another smashing raid on another gaming establishment in the central district, it was gathered last night.

Although the names of the black-listed gaming organizations could not be revealed for obvious reasons, it is understood that a newly-opened club, owned by a Chinese, but purported to be that of a foreigner, has been closely watched by the police after receipt of information to the effect that prohibited games have been indulged in on the premises.

Western Area Gaming Dens

With the signing of an agreement between the Shanghai Municipal Council and the City Government as to the policing of the Western Area, which took place on Saturday morning in the Civic Centre, various gambling organizations are stated to be entertaining fears of police action against them shortly. It was learnt yesterday that a line of action is in process of study by the Shanghai Municipal Police, in co-operation with the new Western Area Police to be set up, to drive out vice den operators.

In the raid of last Saturday on the premises above the Silver Palace, at 982 Avenue Foch, eight persons were arrested and a large quantity of gambling paraphernalia was seized by the police. Tables, roulette wheels, drums for bingo, dice shakers, chips and dice, were among the articles carried away by a number of police vans.

Uniforms for male and female dice shakers, application forms for membership in the club, account books, bottles of wine and a large quantity of cigars and cigarettes were also seized. The account books were being scrutinized carefully by the authorities for further clues as to who were behind the gambling organization, it was pointed out yesterday.

According to the police, four rooms were used by the operators to run their games of chance and swindle, while two were used as opium dives. It was also indicated that articles used in smoking opium were seized in the latter premises, although no person was found actually smoking the drug.

Most luxuriously appointed among the vice dens thus far raided, the place was patronized, it was believed, by a few gambling addicts who have much money to spend. Although only small-scale gambling was being operated at the time of the raid, the police believe that the owner or owners intended to expand the scope of the "business." This belief is predicated on the fact that a large number of unused gambling devices were discovered on the premises.

Those arrested were expected to be brought to court for trial, either today, or tomorrow.

According to information obtained, the City Government authorities intend closing the gambling establishments operating in the area under their jurisdiction. Discussions are said to have been held between the City Government and the Japanese authorities with a view to reaching an understanding, but nothing concrete is reported. The measure is to be adopted by Mayor Chen Kung Fon as a means of upholding his prestige by carrying out his scheme to suppress the local unlawful enterprises, which he decided on when assuming the office as Mayor of Shanghai. It is stated that, if possible, the gambling dens will be ordered to cease operations immediately prior to the middle of February, 1941, but a few leading ones may be allowed to carry on functioning.

At present, no less than twenty-seven gambling dens are operating in the Western District, O.O.L., a list of which is as follows :

Foreign Clique Threatened By Police Drive On Gaming Dens

One eye cocked for signs that Mayor Chen Kung-po intends to carry out his promised drive against vice flowering in the Chinese area, the Shanghai Municipal Police force is in the middle of a resolute campaign to clean its own house of the various gambling dens that have sprang up in the Settlement. THE CHINA PRESS learned yesterday.

The campaign's machine, which lumbered into action slowly and secretly on December 13, was whirling at full speed yesterday, with a swank foreign gambling den in the Denis Apartments raided Saturday evening and several more raids impending. The beginning of the second month of the police drive also marked the beginning of the first trial of a foreigner on gambling charges since the Riley case. Hearings in the trial of Luiz Antonio Perpetuo, accused of owning a gambling den, started in the Portuguese Consular Court yesterday morning.

The trial and sentencing of Perpetuo will be the first blow to shatter the ring of foreigners who operate gambling in the Settlement, if police plans go through. Perpetuo was alleged to have owned the "37427" Club which operated at 1477 Bubbling Well Road, but according to reports in gambling circles there are at least five other dens doing big business in the Settlement.

Boast "Protection"

With some of them boasting "protection," these foreigners are said to have divided the Settlement into "spheres of influence." Their speech, it was said, lies in that the dens can open in a different locality soon after they are raided and closed down in their former premises. All too often, it was explained, the arrest of the "front" for the gambling den leaves the real owner or owners at large to continue their "industry."

The firm intention of the Shanghai Municipal Council to harry this clique out of existence was reflected in the statement made to THE CHINA PRESS yesterday by a responsible police official, who said: "We've been campaigning against them for the past 10 years, but this time we'll drive them out of the Settlement."

Information reaching THE CHINA PRESS from gambling circles indicated that there are at least five dens humping in the Settlement at present.

Tifeng Road Den

One place was reported to be operating at 7 Tifeng Road, under Russian management. The Russians were also said to be connected with a new gambling house in the former residence of Elly Wilder on the 17th floor of the Broadway Mansions.

Running in the Settlement at present, also, is a den above the Silver Palace dance hall, at the corner of Avenue Foch and Weihaiwei Road. It was reported. At one time two "clubs" were operating on different floors, but a police raid closed one down.

Spaniard Involved

The Union Club, which opened recently on Tifeng Road, opposite the Fire Brigade, is said to be run by a Spaniard and two Russians. The "club" is not within easy raiding distance of the S.M.P. as it is situated in Chinese territory.

A Frenchman is said to be behind a luxurious den in the Medhurst Apartments, at the corner of Bubbling Well and Medhurst Roads.

In addition, a gambling den is said to be operating at 204 Seymour Road, above Watson's Pharmacy at the corner of Bubbling Well and Seymour Roads. This establishment, according to private information, is co-owned by a Portuguese and an Englishman.

Several Closed

Against the places still open now, the S.M.P. can check several dens which have been forced to close. These are the "37427 Club," a lower-class den on Avenue Haig, near Avenue Foch, a den on Ferry Road, and the swank establishment in Apartment 35A on the eighth floor of the Dennis Apartments, at the corner of Bubbling Well and Carter Roads.

Detained in that raid, when detectives seized gambling paraphernalia, was a Portuguese who has been handed over to the Portuguese authorities. The nature of the charges to be framed against him were not known, as detectives suspect that he acted as a "front" for the real owners.

The demise of two other gambling dens was noted recently. The establishment at the Kingland Dancing Hall, in the big, rambling house at the corner of Yates and Weihaiwei Roads, closed down about a month ago, for an unknown reason. The "Tiny Club," near the Navy Y.M.C.A. on Szechuen Road, reported to have been backed by Italian money, was scared by the police campaign into shutting up shop.

In conjunction with their own war against gambling, the S.M.P. evinced interest in Mayor Chen Kung-po's repeated promises to stamp out gambling and other forms of vice in the area under his administration. Responsible officials told THE CHINA PRESS they had as yet received no sign that the Mayor intended to put his promises into practice.

Should the Mayor, however, turn against the big interests said to be behind such profitable palaces of vice as the "Six Nations' Club," at the corner of Avenue Haig and Avenue Foch, a firmer police stand may be expected against Chinese dens fronting on Settlement roads. It was stated.

Gambling Joints: Nuisance on Ave. Haig

To the Editor of the

"NORTH-CHINA DAILY NEWS"

SIR,—Some months ago I had occasion to protest in your correspondence column against the nightly nuisance created by the erection of a new gambling establishment at No. 346 Avenue Haig.

This illegal resort is now in full swing and is extending its premises by day and night work, with the aid of illumination supplied by the Western District Power Company of Shanghai, Fed. Inc. U.S.A.

Our nights are accordingly again rendered hideous by the "Hee-haws" of a horde of native workmen. I have noticed recently, moreover, that two Sikh constables of the Shanghai Municipal Council were superintending the ingress and egress of the riff-raff who frequent the resort.

May I once more draw attention to the fact that such establishments are in flagrant defiance of the laws of both partners in the "new order in Eastern Asia" and also of both branches of the Anglo-Saxon race, and enquire whether a/l concerned are not participes criminis with the promoters of the den?
